

National Defence—Con.

Special force—Con.

- Air transport
 - ° Civilian employees, veterans' benefits for, 502
 - Tokyo airlift. See Royal Canadian Air Force
 - Transport planes and Canadian Pacific Air Lines, 368
 - Armoured unit in, 346, 386, 429
 - Authority to send to Korea, 495-96, 528
 - Constituents, 326
 - Directing to various fields of action, 493-94
 - Increasing number from 6,000 to 15,000, 618-19
 - Legal provision for dispatching abroad, 490-94
 - Mail, delivery to Korea, 723-24
 - Married separation allowance, 497-98
 - Not planned for, 193-94
 - Orders in council affecting, 495-97
 - Clarifying, 501-02
 - Pay
 - And allowances to forces serving in Korea or Korean waters, 347
 - Recreational facilities, and, qu. (Mr. Jones) 316-17
 - Placing on active service, 493, 528
 - Recruiting, qu. (Mr. Knight) 379-80
 - Status of in Korea under rules of warfare, 499-500
 - Tanks for, 346
 - Report in Ottawa Journal, 386, 391
 - To be sent to Korea only, 497
 - Volunteers from regular forces for, qu. (Mr. Jones) 316-17
 - Weapons for, 431
- Statement of Mr. Claxton, 98-104
- Submarines
 - Coast patrols to guard against, 372-73
 - None for Canada, 256
- Supplies and maintenance, provision for. See Defence Appropriation Bill
- Tanks, 428-33
 - For Korea. See under this title, Special force
 - Old ammunition not usable for training, 256
 - Spares, 411
- Tradesmen, qualified, list of, 413-14
- Transport aircraft, 386, 417. See also Royal Canadian Air Force
- Treaty obligations, six or eight months required to meet, 336-38, 351
- United Nations force. See under this title, Special force
- Unification of services. See under this title, Armed forces

National Defence Act

- Amendment of to permit action by the governor in council in matters of collective defence. See Canadian Forces Bill
 - Definition of emergency under not applicable to present situation, 498
 - Section 33
 - Calling of parliament within certain time after governor in council places defence forces on active service, 488-94
 - Complying with, in letter and in spirit, 494-97
 - Extending field in which Act may be operative, 489
- National Defence Committee. See also War Expenditures Committee
- Control of government policy not the intention of, 309-11
 - Could take action similar to external affairs committee, 253, 296-97, 353
 - Enough members with military experience to form, 311, 333
 - Formation of, 113-14, 136, 160, 182-84, 246, 255-56, 287, 305-06, 322, 331-35, 353-57, 366, 382-86, 472-73
 - At once, to sit during crisis, 332
 - King, W. L. Mackenzie, on, 280
 - Refusal of request for, 683
 - Reasons advanced, 183-84
 - Information sought in might involve plans of other nations, 297
 - Matters could be discussed in on a non-partisan basis, 328-29
 - Not an attempt to derogate from the cabinet, 183
 - Not different to other committees of the house, 306
 - Parliament should adjourn, instead of prorogue, and permit committee to conduct inquiry during recess, 305
 - Proposed in 1940 became committee on war expenditures, 294
 - United Kingdom, 183, 295-97, 310
 - Churchill, Winston, on, 114, 296
 - United States, 114-18, 241
 - Churchill, Winston, on, 114
 - Would help to check on expenditures, 338-39
 - Would seek to inquire into government policy, 256-57, 295-96
 - Not control it, 309-11
- National Defence Department. See also National Defence
- Engineering and design, expenditure on outside assistance, 602
 - Esquimalt, B.C., harbour, transfer of powers, duties and functions respecting to Transport department, 5
 - Impression concerning waste of money by, 359