

The Address—Division

trend is clear. Our motion is intended to assert the principle of free competition, of freedom, and because the subamendment that has been presented deliberately removes free competition and the supporting argument bases that removal upon socialist doctrines we shall certainly vote against the subamendment, no matter how satisfactory any other part of the subamendment might be.

Mr. Speaker: Is the house ready for the question?

Some hon. Members: Question.

Some hon. Members: Six o'clock.

Mr. Speaker: Some hon. members say six o'clock and others say question.

Mr. Coldwell: I point to the clock; it is six o'clock.

Mr. Speaker: I cannot put the question at six o'clock unless I have unanimous consent.

At six o'clock the house took recess.
