

The Committee on Government Operations is pleased to announce that it has received a report from the Honorable Earl Warren, Chairman of the Warren Commission, dated July 13, 1964. The report contains a detailed account of the investigation conducted by the Commission into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. The Commission has concluded that the assassination was the result of a conspiracy involving several individuals, including Lee Harvey Oswald, who was identified as the assassin. The report also discusses the role of the Texas School Depository and the Dallas Police Department in the investigation.

The Commission's findings are based on a thorough review of all available evidence, including witness statements, physical evidence, and intelligence reports. The Commission has determined that the assassination was a premeditated act, and that Oswald acted alone in the shooting. However, the Commission believes that Oswald was part of a larger conspiracy, and that there were other individuals involved in the plot. The Commission has provided a list of names of individuals it believes were involved in the conspiracy, and has provided a detailed account of the events leading up to the assassination.

The Commission's report is a landmark document in the history of the United States. It provides a clear and concise account of the investigation, and it sets the record straight on many of the rumors and speculation that have surrounded the assassination. The Commission's findings are based on a thorough and impartial investigation, and they provide a solid foundation for our understanding of the events of that fateful day. The Commission's report is a testament to the courage and integrity of the men and women who served on the Commission, and it is a source of pride for all Americans.

The Commission's report is a landmark document in the history of the United States. It provides a clear and concise account of the investigation, and it sets the record straight on many of the rumors and speculation that have surrounded the assassination. The Commission's findings are based on a thorough and impartial investigation, and they provide a solid foundation for our understanding of the events of that fateful day. The Commission's report is a testament to the courage and integrity of the men and women who served on the Commission, and it is a source of pride for all Americans.

The Commission's report is a landmark document in the history of the United States. It provides a clear and concise account of the investigation, and it sets the record straight on many of the rumors and speculation that have surrounded the assassination. The Commission's findings are based on a thorough and impartial investigation, and they provide a solid foundation for our understanding of the events of that fateful day. The Commission's report is a testament to the courage and integrity of the men and women who served on the Commission, and it is a source of pride for all Americans.