

Roc were set on fire. A quantity of rum and molasses has lain in Mr. Drummond's distillery until now ; part of it was got in to-day—the fire may spread that way.

Jan'y 24.—Mild fine weather, wind S. W. Firing at the guard-house in St. Roc. Rum and molasses brought into town.

March 1.—Cold N. W. wind. The voluntary picquet very strong last night. Some people seen on the other side St. Charles river, opposite to Mr. Drummond's distillery ; we fired the 24 pounder behind the Hotel Dieu at them. About seven o'clock in the evening, a house under that gun was perceived to be on fire in the roof ; it burnt in a short time to the ground ; some think that the wadding fell on the roof ; others imagine the rebels may have set it on fire, in hopes that the flames would spread to the distillery, from thence to the picquets above, and so to Montcalm's house, from thence the conflagration would become general."
