

while the freedom of her sacred constitution bestows blessings upon the unborn millions, who may hereafter become inhabitants of her remaining colonies, may it be the second wish of every subject, "that the King may long continue the sovereign of a free people," the first should be, "that the people may be free."

F I N I S.