

grand lodge, a member of the grand lodge of Canada, with such rank as the grand lodge may deem to be appropriate.

4. The grand master has full authority to preside in any lodge, and to order any of his grand officers to attend him. His deputy is to be placed on his right and the master of the lodge on his left hand. His wardens are, also, to act as wardens of that particular lodge during his presence; but if the grand wardens be not present, then the grand master may command the wardens of the lodge, or any master masons, to act as his wardens, pro tempore.

5. The grand master may send his grand officers to visit any lodge he may think proper.

6. The grand master may summon any lodge or brother to attend him, and to produce the warrant, books, papers and accounts of such lodge, or the certificate of such brother. If the summons be not complied with, nor a sufficient reason given for non-compliance, such summons is to be repeated as a peremptory summons: if such last summons be not attended to, such lodge or brother may be suspended, and the proceeding notified to the grand lodge.

7. The grand master shall not be applied to officially on any business concerning masons or masonry, but through the grand secretary, the deputy grand master, the district deputy grand masters, or board of general purposes.

OF DEPUTY GRAND MASTER.

1. This officer is to be elected at the annual communication of the grand lodge; and in order that both sections of the province may enjoy a proper representation, he shall not be elected from that portion of the province in which the grand master
