

446 History of New Brunswick.

- Fenian Raid, 244-245-250-251, v. ii.
 Fisheries, 293, v. i.
 Fisher, Charles—42, v. ii.; 83, v. ii.; forms a new administration, 170-185, v. ii.; resigns from the Government, 187, v. ii.
 Flour, duties on,—126.
 Fort Hughes, at the Oromocto, 122, v. i.
 Francis I. of France, 2, v. i.
 Franklin, Michael—Lieutenant Governor, 98, v. i.
 Fraser, J. John—Forms a Government, 328, v. ii.
 Frederick, Fort—100, v. i.
 Fredericton—Formerly St. Annes, founded by the Governor, 150, v. i.; becomes the seat of the Government in October, 1796, 200, v. i.; not favored as the Capital, 201, v. i.
 Fundy, Bay—2, v. i.

G

- George III.—His obstinate folly, 73, v. i.; his dull wit and obstinacy 125, v. i.; his death, 372, v. i.
 George IV.—His death, 445, v. ii.
 Gesner, Doctor Abraham—His geological researches, 64-65, v. ii.
 Gibraltar—Besieged by France and Spain, 127, v. i.
 Glenie, James—member for Sunbury, 212, v. i.; a reformer of an advanced type, 212, v. i.; denounced by the Governor's friends, 246, v. i.
 Glenelg, Lord—Favors the interests of the Province, 39, v. i.
 Goodrich Lord—450, v. i.
 Gordon, Arthur Hamilton—Governor, opposes Confederation, 243-244.
 Gorham, Colonel—40, v. i.; 113, v. i.
 Gould, Colonel—Goes to St. John River, 116, v. i.; receives the submission of St. John rebels, 116, v. i.
 Government House—Its purchase by the Province, 339, v. i.
 Grammar Schools established, 300, v. i.; 390, v. i.
 Grande Fontaine—Governor of Acadia, 18, v. i.
 Grand Juries—58, v. i.
 Great Britain—Her defeat and losses, 126, v. i.
 Grievances committee, 2, v. i.; of the Province, a deputation sent to England, 9, v. ii.; of the Province, a deputation sent to England, 9, v. ii.; 22, 23, v. ii.
 Grey, Earle—His despatch against bounties, 134, v. ii.
 Gray, Wilmot—Government defeated, 185, v. xi.
 Gray, John H.—Deserts his party, 152, v. i.; forms a new government, 181, v. ii.
 Gypsum, export of—293, v. i.; trade, 336-337, v. i.; the smugglers defy the law, 338, v. i.