

TO those who, long ago hewed out their humble homes in the forest here, established a place of Divine Worship, helped to lay the foundation of a great nation, made Warwick a better place for us to live in, and to the ministers who labored faithfully among us, this book is gratefully inscribed.

Warwick, Dec., 1919.