The Gaelic Athletic Association Officers

The annual general meeting of the Gaelic Athletic Association was held on the 11th inst. in St. Mary's Hall, Mr. John Coyne presided over a large and enthusiastic gathering of members.

The president's report was most encouraging, inasmuch as it showed that the G.A.A. was financially solvent, with a very respectable balance on hand.

The annual statement of the secretary presented in detail the growth of the movement and the astonishing progress attained in so short a time.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Chairman, Mr. John Coyne; treasurer, Mr. John Fitzpatrick; secretary, Mr. J. T. McCaffrey; assistant secretary, Mr. P. Mulgrew.

The said executive intend pursuing a progressive policy for the ensuing year. The promotion of the grand old Irish pastime of hurling will be one of its chief aims, and ere the season is over the Toronto public will witness an exhibition of one of the finest and most skilled games extant by some of Ireland's famous exponents.

One of the features of this most successful meeting of Gaelic was an address by the Rev. J. B. Dollard, the noted scholar, poet and author. The reverend speaker in his younger days was a famous athlete in Ireland. He was an associate of the famous Moonshine Club, the all-Ireland hurling champions. His speech, scintillated with Irish drollery and wit, his great knowledge and love of the Gaelic games and sports, his recital of humorous episodes of his earlier sporting days, his relating of anecdotes of his acquaintance with the foremost renowned athletes that Ireland has produced within the past 25 years, along with his dominating personality, combined to make his address a brilliant one, and one that will long be remembered by the hearers. His advice to the members of the G.A.A. re the Irish games of hurling and football was highly appreciated, and was listened to with rapt attention.

Members will please bear in mind that the usual weekly practice will be held on Saturday, the 10th, at 2.30 p.m., on No. 4 field, Don Flats.
