

4. The saving by the State authority of such proportion of the joint wealth and production as may be requisite for instituting, maintaining, and increasing national capital.
5. The maintenance by the State authority from the joint-wealth production of all educational and sanitary institutions.
6. The just division amongst all citizens of the State of all wealth production, less only that part retained for public and common requirements.
7. The reorganisation of society upon the above lines to be commenced at once, and pursued uninterruptedly until social justice is fully secured to each and every citizen.