VENICE.

The Clock and the Key.

By ARTHUR HENRY VESEY. 12mo. Ornamented Cloth, $1.50.

This is a tale of a mystery connected with an old clock. The lover, an American man of means, is startled out of his sensuous, inactive life in Venice by his lady-love's scorn for his indolence. She begs of him to perform any task that will prove his persistence and worth. With the character of Venice as a background, one follows the adventures of the lover endeavoring to read the puzzling hints of the clock as to the whereabouts of the famous jewels of many centuries ago. After following many false clues the lover ultimately solves the mystery, triumphs over his rivals, and wins the girl.
