

ncil, and,
 nittee for
 , under
 to come
 his Ma-
 , and also gdoms of
 uch Mateither of perly bee of the f Guern-
 s to con-
 al, Duke

carrying
 id Com-
 ral other
 Com-

Committees then appointed, his Majesty thought fit to direct, that such Committees do make their Reports in Writing, to be offered to his Majesty next Council Day following, in which, if ever any Debate arose, the youngest Counsellor to begin, and not to speak a second Time without Leave first obtained : And that, as on one Side nothing is to be hereafter resolved in Council, till the Matter hath been examined, and received the Opinion of some Committee or other ; so, on the other Hand, that nothing be referred to any Committee until it hath been first read at the Board, excepting foreign Affairs ; with

E this