

His Royal Highness's Answer, delivered the Twelfth of March, 1767.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

I thank you for this distinguishing Mark of your Duty to the King, and your Attention to me; and I receive it with Pleasure. I shall always be glad to contribute as much as I can to the Interest and Advantage of the City of London, and shall heartily embrace every Opportunity to promote its Trade and Manufactures.

K I T E, Mayor.

A Common Council holden in the Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Tuesday, the Twenty-third Day of June, 1767.

A Motion was made, and Question put, That the Freedom of this City be presented to the Right Honourable Charles Townshend, Chancellor and Under Treasurer of his Majesty's Exchequer, one of the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain,
