

HEAD-QUARTERS,
MONTREAL, 11th June, 1813.

G. O.

HIS HONOR THE PRESIDENT and Commander of the Forces in this Province cannot dispense with making publicly known the dispositions of the Militiamen discharged on the 4th instant, who hearing the news of the Enemy's approach, declared that they would not accept of their discharge, until after the Enemy should have been repulsed, and who prepared themselves to march, at that moment, with their Battalion, to meet the Enemy, with a zeal and heart so well corresponding with the loyalty and courage of their Countrymen. Those Militiamen in returning into the bosom of their family carry with them the esteem and gratitude of their Officers.

J. T. TASCHEREAU,
Dept. Adj. Gen. of the Militia Forces.
