UST A WORD OR TWO

Some one told our buyer about a year ago that he could not sell Suits at 25.00 and 30.00 all ready to wear. He said he could, and started right in to " make good," and he has. He first of selected the cloth from our custom departmentand had them made up, custom or hand tailored, by the experts in our big warehouse at Hamilton. Every detail was carefully looked into, with the result that to-day (less than the year) we are selling more men's and young men's suits at from 18.00 to 30.00 than we are of the lines below those prices. Of course we have not neglected our 10.00, 12.00 and 15.00 suits-(they are better value than ever) ; but we certainly are increasing our sales for the better-made garments, and we are prepared to stand behind them in every case with a new suit or your money back, if for any reason they do not hold to our guarantee. Very few men nowa-days think of going to a shoemaker to have their boots made to order - and the same thing applies to the clothing question. We are not in competition with the cheap, readymade clothier, but the custom tailor; and in matters of detail, style, fit and finish we are miles ahead in the race for supremacy. So ereign Brand is the King's Plater in the clothing race.

> Hamilton, May 31.—(Special.)—The case against the Wholesale Grocers' Guild, on the charge of conspiracy, was continued this morning in police court before Magistrate eJlfs and Crown Attoarney Washington obtained evidence against the alleged combine of a highly sensational character. Leters were submitted which showed that the guild had what it called an equalized sugar freight rate, that was higher in many instances than the rates of the rall-ways, from whom the refiners got the difference in the form of rebates. Whether the guild got anything out of the rebate has not been shown yet. It the rebate has not been shown yet. It was shown that two grocers, Andrew McBean of Kingston and John Curtis
