IRUN DOWN BY FARMER BROWN

Bison's Won a Pitcher's Battle At the Island.

Fewer Hits Were Made Off Fouts, But the Granger Kept His Nicely Scattered — Dan Brouthers Signs With Toronto—Montreal and Syracuse Win.

The Bisons have caught Toronto in a pretty bad condition the present series, and have already made a big hole in the islanders' percentage. Their win yesterday was solely due to the superb work of Farmer Brown, and Toronto will try and knock them over in the extra game today. Gaston will help to tie them in a knot, while Mitchell or Gray will do his best to foil the Torontos.

When Dan Brouthers is released he will be out of a job just as long as it takes him to telegraph any one of the, three Eastern league managers and get a reply. And the best wishes of Springfield fans will go with him. —Springfield Union. And Dan straightway wired to Arthur Irwin, who has a right field fence. Terms were soon arranged, and the ex-world's champion batsman, and the relic of the Big Four will be here to stay and divide honors with Bucky Freeman in punching shoots over the wire.

One of the quicket deals on record was made at the Island yesterday, the result bein gthat Catcher Reuning was transferred from Toronto to London. Bert Sheere's query came to the Island ticker and Manager Irwin, who intended releasing Reuning, did so on the spot. A couple of more wires fixed up the terms, and today the player leaves for the west. In Reuning London secures a reliable backstop, good thrower, strong batsman and one of the fastest runners in the business.

Weyhing was driven from the rubber after the second, and Dineen, who replaced him, pitched clever ball for Washington against St. Louis on Tuesday, the Senators winning by 8 to 5.

It is among the probabilities that Catcher Duncan will soon wear a Toronto uniform. He would be played regularly behind the bat with Casey as a permanency in left field.

Game to-day: Buffalo at Toronto.

Scattered Hits Off Farmer Brown.

The pitchers' battle at the Island yesterday afternoon resulted in a victory for the Bisons. Fouts and Farmer Brown were the rival twirlers, and, while the Toronto man made the better record as far as hits are concerned, there is no doubt that the granger slab artist performed the more cleverly. Foutz was great up to the sixth, only allowing a two-bagger in the first and a single in the fifth. After Householder accepted one in the ribs, Griffin sacrificed and Wise singled, but still no score. Lawrence batted one high and far to right. Freeman backed up to the fence, but the ball just dropped over, and that is the story of the trio. Brown fooled the hard-hitting Freeman every time. In Toronto's half of the sixth, after Casey had doubled and Grey had scratched a single, Freeman's opportunity appeared due. But the Farmer curved the ball in to the outside corner of the plate, and Buckie only sent a long fly to left for the third hand out. Then, again, in the eighth, with Casey on third and Grey on second, the crowd rooted for Freeman to lift it over, but Brown once more worked the outside corner, and Buckie had to again bat to left, this time for a single, and what proved to be Toronto's only run of the day. The visitors scored two in the eighth without a hit, a base on balls, Foutz's wild throw and two long-flys to the outfield yielding the runs.

Besides his clever work in scattering hits, Brown had almost perfect control, and only allowed two men—Casey and Grey—to walk to first. The Bisons fielded sharply, Griffin's catch of Reisling's fly on the foul line in the eighth being a fast piece of work.

Syracuse, June 1.—O'Brien's home run in the seventh innings of to-day's game brought in two runs and put the Stars ahead. Massey's home run in the ninth tied the score for the Ponies, but the Stars won out in their half on an error of Gleason, a sacrifice, a base on balls and a single. Score:

Jumping at Conclusions.

From The Hamilton Herald.

The Toronto newspapers are giving publicity to an alleged wrestling match for $1000 a side between Yousouf, the Terrible Turk, and R. N. Harrison, the Toronto champion, to take place on June 25. It's a hundred dollars to a losing pool ticket that neither Harrison nor his backers would venture a five-cent piece on the chances of the Canadian in such a contest with the burly Turk, nor would any sensible man expect to hear of Harrison's victory. It is quite evident that someone is preparing to spring a good old "con" game on susceptible Toronto.

SMALL CROWDS AND UPSETS

Bob Davis' Zeal, a 10 to 1 Shot Beat the Favorite Nicholas.

Seagram's Quack Quack Bowled Over Strathroy—Dogilda Upset Prince Plausible and the Public—Jim Megibben Defeated Pearl—Zanetto and Springal Were the Only Favorites to Win.

Hamilton, June 1.—(Special.)—The Hamilton Jockey Club card for the second day was not as good as at the opening, and, although the weather was fine, the crowd was a small one, not nearly so many Torontonians being here. There were only five races on the program, but an extra one was added later in the day. Again the favorites were bowled over, only two out of six finishing in front. The starts were all good, and the fields fair, with the exception of the steeplechase, and in this they were all scratched but three. Again a surprise was in store for the public. Strathroy, a prime favorite, was beaten out by Quack-Quack, a long shot.

In the first race, the horses got away on the first break, Rideau making the running to the stretch, where he died out, and Zeal and the favorite, Nicholas, fought it out, Zeal winning all out, Nicholas tiring, but landing second money easily.

The second race was a cinch for the favorite, although Yellow Jacket had the lead to the three-quarters, where Zanetto jumped to the front, and won under a pull, Yellow Jacket getting the place easily, Disorder getting inside by a length.

The start in the third race was a good one, the favorite, Strathroy, going to the front at the quarter, and making the running to the stretch, but owing to a poor ride was beaten out by Quack-Quack under a hard drive, Revolver landing third money five lengths behind. Strathroy should have won, only being beaten in the last 50 yards.

In the fourth, the start was also good, and the race was won handily by Dogilda, a good thing. Amah made the pace to the stretch, where she was beaten for the place by Prince Plausible, the favorite, in the last sixteenth.

Only three horses faced the starter in the steeplechase, the favorite taking the lead at the first jump, and keeping it up to the finish, winning all out, Moorland getting second place easily.

In the last race, six started, Jim Megibben outrunning the favorite, Pearl, in the last eighth. The race was won all out, and the place easily, Wink getting third in good style.

The bookmakers did a good business again yesterday, and it was their day. In the first race they made a lot of money, owing to the favorites being beaten and the winner, a long shot, was mostly played to show, Wordsworth getting the place money. In the second race the talent had a little the best of it, as the odds on the favorite were fairly good, and he carried a lot of money. Yellow Jacket also carried first money, but was well backed for the place, the others being nibbled at.

The third race was another harvest for the books, as Strathroy, the favorite, was heavily played, the winner only being taken by the guessers. On this race the public got a bad throw-down. Revolver was fairly well played for place and show money.

The favorite was well backed in the fourth race, while a tip on Belle Regent caused her to carry considerable coin, the others not carrying much money. The short odds in the fifth left the public off of the favorite, and Moorland got all the place choice, and was taken by some to win, the long shot being almost untouched.

The books made Pearl the favorite in the last, and she was heavily backed. The winner and Wink were the choice for the place and to show; the others being more or less long shots were only taken by the chance bettors, and on this race the books again made money.
