

SKELETON FOUND IN NORTH END OF LONG DEAD INDIAN WARRIOR

Gravel Pit Workers Make an Unusual and Interesting Discovery.

While at work in the Winnett gravel pit at the north end of William street recently, Mr. George Sayers, of 907 Waterloo street, unearthed a skeleton, apparently the remains of an ancient Indian warrior.

Mr. Sayers, along with several other workmen, was loading gravel in the Winnett pit when he dug up some bones. At first he did not pay much attention to the find and took the bones to be those of some animal. However, he came across several other bones, which he thought were those of a human being.

He thought at first that someone had been murdered and buried there. The other workmen scouted this idea, but Sayers only became the firmer in his belief and went to work to make further investigations. More bones were found, and after a while a whole skeleton was laid out on the grass. It was the most complete, although the bones had become detached.

The theory, however, that the bones were those of the victim of some horrible murder was quickly dispelled from Mr. Sayers' mind, for he soon found a large clay sherd, with what appeared to be a stone skinning knife, similar to those used by the Indians. Two Indian arrowheads had evidently been set upon the chest of the person whose bones had been buried there, possibly for centuries.

The body had evidently been interred in a slanting position with the head about two feet from the surface and the feet about four feet from the top.

Bones of Large Man.

The bones were large, and suggested that they had at one time formed the framework of a man of powerful stature. The skull and jawbones were of the type usually found in the skeletons of Indians. In the top of the skull were the marks indicating that the skull had evidently been crushed by a blow, and this led the finders of the remains to believe them to be those of some Indian warrior who had fallen under the blow of a tomahawk or club.

The finding of the skeleton has recalled to many of the older residents of the neighborhood stories which their fathers used to tell of about which stood over the very spot where the skeleton was found, and which had remained uninhabited many and many a day, because weird sounds and uncertain lights had led all who knew the spot to consider it haunted by evil spirits.

Another strange story is told by those of older years about an old colored man who haunted these parts, and lived a very strange life. He was always known to be a mystery. His sole companion was a big dog, and along with this canine friend he could be seen wandering through the woodlands all day long with a gun, hunting muskrats and other small game.

So far as can be learned the first resident of the little old hut was Alexander MacDonald, an uncle of Mr. John Grant, of Maitland street, city. He is said to have cleared away the virgin forest, and to have been there when all was a vast wilderness.

LOCAL GROCERS AT SPRINGBANK

Prizes Presented—Game of Ball Played—Good Time
for All.

There wasn't a dull moment at Springbank yesterday afternoon, when the grocers' flag-day of the big picnic was in progress. The prizes for the best looking grocer and clerk won at the recent excursion at Toronto were presented, and the recipients, Garfield McCormick for the grocers, and Harry Bell for the clerks, were too much overcome to express their thanks.

The gifts took the form of a beautiful jack-in-the-box and tin whistle, with fine umbrellas thrown in.

The baseball game between the grocers and clerks proved most exciting, being won by the bosses by 2-1, at the end of seven fast innings. It is stated on good authority that the game was completed within four hours, from which it can be easily seen that the contest was most scientific.

The teams were:
Grocers—Ryan, 1 b; A. McCormick, 2 b; Paul, s. s.; Vincent, 1 c; Donahy, 3 b; Mullins, 1 c; C. Langford, c; T. James, c; H. R. Hanson, p.
Clerks—Bird, 1 b; B. Hayes, 1 b; R. R. Hanson, 2 b; Laughlin, 3 b; Duncan, c; Hooper, 1 f; Moran, c; f; Donohue, c; Arnold, s. s.

THE BRUCE OLD BOYS

Festivities at Kincardine in Full Swing Attended by Thousands.

Kincardine, July 24. — The reunion of old boys and girls tonight brought people by the thousands to Kincardine, and the festivities are now in full swing. Old boys and girls are here from every quarter of North America. Wingham defeated Kincardine in lacrosse by 4 to 0. The calthumpian procession and water sports were also held. A water polo basin and was a unique event. There were small craft anchored for bases, and fielding was done by swimmers.

PATTERSON—TANNER

A Pretty Wedding in the Methodist Church at Appin.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Methodist Church, Appin, on July 24, when Miss Ethel Mae, daughter of Mrs. Geo. Tanner, was united in marriage to Mr. Bert Patterson, of Cobalt. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Oliphant, pastor of the Methodist Church.

The bride who was given away by her brother, looked charming in a dress of cream tulle, trimmed with silk embroidered chiffon. She wore a veil and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by two bridesmaids, Miss Patterson, who wore a gown of pale pink, and Miss Dolly Phillips, in pale blue. Each carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The groom was supported by Mr. Dan E. Patterson, of Dutton, brother of the groom. The ushers were D. A. Patterson, W. Phillips and I. Campbell. Miss Katie Patterson rendered very acceptably Mendelssohn's wedding march. The reception was held in the basement of the church which was beautifully decorated. After a dainty wedding breakfast, the happy couple left for Cobalt via Toronto. The esteem in which the young couple are held by their many friends was in evidence by the numerous and valuable presents.

The groom's gift to the bride was a superb set with pearls and a gold necklace; to each bridesmaid, a brooch set with brilliant, and to each of the ushers a stick pin. Guests were present from Dutton, London, Ingersoll, Detroit and Strathroy.

A Scarborough (England) woman, who desires her name to remain a secret, has instructed a local saddler to supply dog collars to any local persons who can show they are too poor to buy them. The woman, who is a lover of animals, has taken steps to prevent the destruction of dogs under the new dog act.

HYDE MUST GO BEFORE SESSIONS

Man Accused of Stealing From Crystal Hall Ruins Committed for Trial.

Joseph Hyde, the man who was arrested by P. C. Down at the scene of the disaster, on the morning after the Reid Crystal Hall catastrophe, appeared before Magistrate Love at the police court this morning, and was committed for trial at the general sessions.

Hyde pleaded not guilty to the charge of stealing and after the hearing of the testimony of two witnesses Magistrate Love refused to allow Mayor Judd, who appeared for the accused, to put P. C. Black into the witness box. Hyde was committed for trial.

According to the testimony given by P. C. Down, who arrested Mr. Hyde about 4:30 o'clock on the morning following the disaster he (Down) saw Hyde, who was working on the ruins, pick up some clothes and caps and lay them in a pile. He afterwards according to the story told by Constable Down, started up Dundas street with them on his arm. Down said that he called to Hyde and asked him where he was going with these things, whereupon Hyde dropped the goods and moved into the crowd. Down overtook him and questioned him about a bundle which he appeared to be carrying under the front of his shirt.

According to Down's statement, Hyde answered that they were some towels which he had brought from the rolling mills, but when Down investigated he found another shirt rolled up and put inside. Down also claimed to have found on the inside of the man's coat and vest and in his pocket several other articles which he produced in court, among them being a small child's picture and a glass paper weight.

The sergeant was then called and asked what he thought of the man having stolen the things, and he ordered Down to arrest him.

Down claimed to have examined the bundle dropped by Hyde when he first accosted him, and found it contained four suits of clothes, minus one pair of pants.

Witness stated that he did not know that Hyde had been working at the rescue work ever since 7 o'clock on the previous evening, and that he had not seen him before. He had not heard that orders were given to those at work on the ruin to take anything which they found and place it in the doorway of the Graves store.

To Mr. Judd, he said that he had seen Hyde standing at the outside of the wreckage pile picking up clothes which the others threw out, and that Hyde was the only one doing this.

Police Sergeant John Monaghan was also called to testify and swore that he had given orders to have the clothing put in Graves' doorway, and that different men had been carrying it there in armfuls. He had not noticed the prisoner particularly. Down did not explain the circumstances of the case to him.

Down was then recalled and told of a conversation he had with the prisoner en route to the station, in which he stated that he was not going to resist, because that would only make his case worse.

ANOTHER VICTIM

Norwegian Woman Succumbs to Injuries of Yacht Accident.

[Special to the Advertiser.]
Toronto, July 25.—Mrs. Jansen, the Norwegian woman who was burned when the gasoline yacht Sitara was blown up on Friday last, died this morning at St. Michael's Hospital. The other three patients are doing well.

Eighty-five women boxblacks are numbered among the industrial workers of the United States.

BIG BAND CONCERT ON FRIDAY NIGHT

7th and 26th Bands Will Play in Aid of Crystal Hall Sufferers.

The heavy rain of last night made it impossible for the band concert in aid of the sufferers of the Reid's Crystal Hall disaster to be given in Victoria Park.

As a consequence it has been decided to hold the concert on Friday night, when the Seventh and Twenty-sixth Regiment Bands will play.

There will undoubtedly be a very large crowd, as the concert is being given for a very good cause. None of the bandsmen will receive a cent for playing.

A collection for the sufferers will be taken up at the gates.

The Twenty-sixth Regiment Band will render the following programme: March—Royal Trumpeters ... Seltzer Medley Overture—Arrah Wana ... Morse Valse—Immortelle ... Verdi Potpourri—Morse's Melodies ... Morse

CONDENSED LOCAL NEWS

Mr. John Carling, who has been inspected for some days, is much better today.

Two rains of excursionists from Ingersoll passed through the city today on their way to Port Stanley.
There were 1,500 people on the excursion.

All Doing Well.

All the victims of the Crystal Hall disaster who are in Victoria Hospital are reported to be progressing favorably today.

Clearing House Returns.

Clearings for the week ending July 25, 1907, totaled $1,195,996, against $1-035,189 for the same week last year.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant and family, of Brantford, wish to express their heartfelt thanks for the kindness and sympathy shown by their friends during the recent illness and death of their daughter Gertrude.

Mr. McNaughton Ill.

The many friends of Mr. James Mc-Naughton of 526 Dufferin avenue, will hear with regret that he is very ill at his home. Mr. McNaughton suffered a paralytic stroke about a week ago, and has been unconscious since that time.

Won the Prizes.

At the picnic of the boys and girls societies of St. Mary's church at Port Stanley yesterday, Miss Aggie Peltan won the prize for the most popular lady, and Mr. Tom Murray carried off the honors for being the most popular gentleman.

To Effect Release.

An effort is being made to secure the release of Wm. Craven, of this city, who a month ago was sent to jail in Hamilton for three months for stealing. The ground for the application is that the prisoner's wife and children are in destitute circumstances.

The Eclipse.

Local astronomers were greatly interested in the partial eclipse of the moon last night. The moon entered the shadow at 10:04 o'clock, and the eclipse was at its height at 11:22 o'clock. At 12:41 normal conditions were resumed. Clouds obscured the phenomenal sight during part of the time.

Thirty-one Cases.

Thirty-one judgment summons cases were heard before Judge Elliott at the court house this morning. Tomorrow morning the division court sits, when some 61 cases are scheduled to be heard.

Work was started today on the new steel and concrete bridge which is to span the Thames just south of Appin.

Crossing Blocked.

City Engineer Graydon today wrote the Grand Trunk Railway in regard to the delaying of street cars at Richmond street through blocking Port Stanley street by the company, especially last night between 10 and 11, when the crossing was blocked, according to the figures of the street railway people for 26 minutes.

The entire street railway service was tied up, and the people of London were very much inconvenienced.

London Lost.

A game of ball was played between the master painters of London and a team selected from the visiting painters. It occurred at Springbank, and thereby hangs a tale, for the visitors wallpapered the local painters by a score of 7 to 6. Senator O'Hearn, of Toronto, umpired, and got away with his life. A Mr. Wall, of Boston, made a home run, and now has an ache in his arm as a result of the handshaking he has been doing with himself.

INDECENT ASSAULT CHARGE

Thomas Murray Is Sent for Trial at the Fall Assizes.

Thomas Murray, who was charged with indecent assault upon the wife of Hiram McCone, was sent for trial at the fall assizes.

The testimony of Mrs. McCone and a little girl, who had been in the house at the time of the alleged assault, was heard. It appears that Murray was a distant relation of Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Cone, and that he had been living in the house with them prior to the alleged assault. Mrs. McCone testified that Murray had struck her with his fist, and committed an indecent assault upon her.

Albert Patterson and George Petty, two truckers at the G. T. R. station, were arraigned on charges of stealing ten cents' worth of candy from the railway company. The charge was laid against them by G. T. R. Constable Logan, who alleges that they broke open a pill and took some candy.

U ME

We have been fortunate in securing a small consignment of diminutive teapots of the celebrated Blenko ware. direct in their original Japanese wrappings, just as they left the hands of the peasants by whom they are made.
We do not offer these Blenko teapots for sale, and they cannot be bought in the regular way, being used merely as a means of introduction to your favorable notice the odor of the Plum Flower of Japan, known to the Japanese as the Ume (pronounced "you-me").
The perfume itself has been acknowledged the most fascinating odor that has been offered. It would give us pleasure if you would call to look at convenient, and let us show you both the perfume and the teapots in question.

day to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
J. E. Johnston, of Leamington. The trip was made with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Westcott in their automobile, and would be later states that very fast time was made.

THE PAINTERS IN HOT DEBATE

in the full report of the convention.

Mr. Stewart, Mr. Hughes and Mr.
Jos. W. Phinmore, both of Toronto, then spoke. Both apparently were hostile to the sentiments expressed in the paper, but took a more moderate view of the matter, thinking Mr. Mc-Kenzie's remarks too severe. Mr.
Phinmore, however, pointed out that the Canadian Association is only a division of the wider international gathering, and that whatever those in favor of the idea conveyed in the paper might say, the suggested measure was practical session.

President Brooke expressed great dissatisfaction with Mr. McKenzie's request. He didn't approve of separation himself, but thought "when a man had nerve enough to write a paper like that all the country should see it."
A vote of thanks was finally passed, and the ordinary proceedings continued.

Mr. H. S. Goodfellow, of Galt, read an excellent paper on "Paint Shop Pointers." He showed the advantages of the gained from systematizing work in the shop, and using methodically means for keeping stock, as painters and brushes.

Wm. E. Wall, of Somerville, Mass., gave a demonstration on the art of graining. He made his points very clear, and no doubt the painters were of great benefit to the large number of practical men before him.

At the afternoon meeting of the officers for the ensuing year are to be elected.

PARNELL'S MODERN BAKERY

RAN ORGANIZER OUT OF THE TOWN

Citizens of Ell, Minn., Handle
Miners' Representative
Without Gloves.

Ell, Minn., July 25.—Alfred Lund-strome, local organizer for the Western Federation of Miners, was run out of town yesterday by businessmen.
Lundstrome went into a market and attempted to form an organization among the clerks. The clerks informed the owner of the shop, and Lundstrome was knocked down several times by the proprietor. The organizer took to his heels up the street, followed for several blocks by the marketkeeper, who struck him as often as he got within reach. Lund-strome was afterwards arrested on the complaint of several businessmen. When taken before the municipal court he promised to leave town if allowed to go. Permission was given, and Lundstrome was escorted by a jeering crowd to a train.

Anticipating violent action by the Western Federation of Miners, citizens held a mass meeting last night at which the city pledged armed protection to all miners who wanted to work. About 3,000 persons, representing all classes of citizens, attended.
Resolutions were passed condemning the strike, commending the treatment afforded to the miners by the mining companies, and giving armed protection to all who wanted to work. Special officers will be sworn in to carry out the promise of the citizens. Nearly every man in the city has pledged himself to serve as a deputy sheriff, should the occasion arise.

The authorities of Ell have given instructions to turn back all agitators attempting to enter.

There has been little actual trouble at Ell. The mines are all running and the workers appear satisfied.

JAPAN TIGHTENS GRIP ON KOREA

New Convention Gives Mikado Complete Control of Affairs.

Tokyo, July 25. — The new convention between Japan and Korea was signed today at 1 p.m., after no small opposition by the Korean court. The provisions are believed to briefly as follows:

1. It provides that the administration of Korea shall secure the guidance of the Japanese resident-general.

2. That the enactment of all laws and ordinances, also all important provisions, shall receive the approval of the resident-general.

3. That the appointment of all high and responsible officials shall receive the approval of the resident-general.

4. That only persons recommended by the resident-general shall be eligible for office in the Korean Government.

5. That a distinct demarcation shall be drawn between administrative and judicial affairs.

6. That foreigners shall be employed only upon consent of the resident-general.

7. That the first clause of the convention of Aug. 22, 1904, providing for the employment of a financial adviser be annulled.

The convention will now be submitted to the privy council of Japan, and will be published here this evening.
