came rushing down through his lot toward the shooting. When he passed the house he was going at a terrific speed, but when he got half-way to the center of excitement, either his mind failed him, or he became, not frightened, but just a little nervous.

Provan appeared before Magistrate Love at the police court this morning and pleaded guilty to two charges of being drunk and disorderly, on which he was fined $1, and the other of carrying a loaded revolver, in which he was fined $5, with costs.

FORMER LONDONERS ARE COMING EAST

Messrs. Bowman and Langan, of Nelson, B. C., Leave for Home.

The following item appeared in the Canadian, of Nelson, B. C., on Friday, July 12.

M. M. Bowman, registrar of the survey, and an informant, were made by Crow boat this morning for a trip to Eastern Canada, his first holiday since his appointment.

It was late in the afternoon when Mr. Bowman received his official leave. J. F. Langan, the Maecenas of Nelson, whose home is in Ontario's western peninsula, within a few miles of the event, it did not take long to organize.

An excellent dinner, with the usual accompaniments, was duly appreciated, and an informal supper, served made by all the guests, the host acting as chairman.

OPEN-AIR SERVICES

A Vast Audience Was Attracted to Tecumseh Park Last Night.

A most successful open-air service was held last night in the grandstand at Tecumseh Park, West London.

The large square under the roof was filled with people, about 2,000 being present.

The occasion was a union service of the West Side churches, and they were assisted by the Salvation Army Band and other workers.

Stirring music was furnished by the band, and powerful addresses were made by Rev. J. B. Freeman, Rev. I. B. Wallin, Adjutant Hobkirk and Mr. Smale.

PHOTOGRAPHED MARS.

Cambridge, Mass., July 22.—Professor Percy Lowell, director of the Lowell observatory, has sent a dispatch to the Harvard observatory officials, in which he says: Marlian double canal photographed by Lamplan and also by me."

A NEW STORY

The story now running in The Advertiser, "Silent Lips," will be concluded within a day or two. This week a new serial will be begun, "My Lady Cinderella," by Mrs. C. N. Williamson, the noted English authoress.

—The Winnipeg Telegram in its "Side-lights at the Exhibition," has this to say of a well-known London man, Cy Warman, who is visiting with his friend, Mr. Harriman, of Chicago, when it became whispered about among spectators, owners and groomers that the distinguished short story writer was present.

—The progress of the Lady Grey up the river was marked by many pleasing incidents, such as receptions at Three Rivers and Sorel, at each of which places the Premier briefly spoke.

—Sir Wilfrid arrived about an hour late on board the Lady Grey. The progress of the Lady Grey up the river was marked by many pleasing incidents, such as receptions at Three Rivers and Sorel, at each of which places the Premier briefly spoke.

—The docks decorated. From the rigging of the ships in port thousands of flags, great and small, fluttered in the evening breeze, while overhead the sky was lighted up by the glare of ten thousand rockets.

—The matter was placed before Mayor Judd today at noon, but he could see nothing for it, but have the sidewalk constructed at the width begun by the contractor.

—It is all very well to talk about the pleasure of walking on cool turf, said an advocate of the cement walk today, "but in winter, and after rain storms, the cool turf isn't so refreshing under foot. Thousands of people make use of that pathway, and they want to use it all seasons of the year."

MR. ARMSTRONG HOME

Ex-Alderman Back in London After Trip to England.

Ex-Ald. Armstrong returned from a trip to England on Saturday night. He looks as though he enjoyed the trip, and reports having had a splendid time.

On the return voyage he had for fellow passengers, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier of Canada, and Mr. Keir Hardie, the noted labor man.

Sir Wilfrid was ill a great deal of the time, but was looking strong when he reached Canada.

Mr. Armstrong saw the decorations going up at Quebec and Montreal for the reception to Sir Wilfrid, and he says they were the finest he ever saw.

GREAT WELCOME FROM MONTREAL

Metropolis Tenders Magnificent Reception to Premier.

TELLS OF GOOD WORK DONE

Triumphal Procession All the Way Up the St. Lawrence From Quebec.

Montreal, July 21.—One of the most enthusiastic receptions ever given a public man in Canada was given to Sir Wilfrid Laurier on Saturday night on his return from England and the colonial conference.

The city was lavishly decorated, and the shipping along the river front was ablaze with thousands of incandescent lights and a wealth of flags and bunting added to the beauty of the scene.

Rain had fallen during the afternoon and early evening, but nothing could dampen the ardor and enthusiasm of the assembled thousands.

Sir Wilfrid arrived about an hour late on board the Lady Grey. The progress of the Lady Grey up the river was marked by many pleasing incidents, such as receptions at Three Rivers and Sorel, at each of which places the Premier briefly spoke.

The docks decorated. From the rigging of the ships in port thousands of flags, great and small, fluttered in the evening breeze, while overhead the sky was lighted up by the glare of ten thousand rockets.

The matter was placed before Mayor Judd today at noon, but he could see nothing for it, but have the sidewalk constructed at the width begun by the contractor.

MASS FOR LATE POPE

Leo's Body Was Not Removed as Was Generally Expected.

Rome, July 21.—Cardinal Agliardi celebrated a solemn requiem mass in the Sistine Chapel today for the repose of the soul of Pope Leo XIII.

It was believed until recently that the anniversary of Pope Leo's death would be celebrated in the Church of St. John of Lateran, the body being removed from St. Peter's and solemnly entombed in St. John of Lateran.

The Pope is determined that the removal shall be made with the utmost secrecy, and he will name the day and the hour at which it will take place.

Meantime the monument to Leo XIII, which is to be erected at the Lateran, will shortly be determined by the sculptor, Tadolini, to the commission of cardinals at whose expense it is to be erected.

THORNCLIFFE.—Can heirs collect interest on proceeds or property sold six months ago, no debts; said money still in executor's hands; all releases in except two? Ans.—The interest earned by moneys in the hands of executors form part of the estate, and the heirs are entitled each to the extent of his share. The shares are payable one year after the death of the testator, after which they bear interest.

ELGINFIELD.—How many years will it take to outlaw missing heirs in an estate when duly advertised? Ans.—Twenty years.

Can an administrator keep money on hand after eleven years, for some reason best known to himself, and won't pay it to the rightful heirs? Ans.—Not legally. Consult a lawyer.

WHERE HIGH PRESSURE SAVED THE SITUATION

Mr. Wm. Yeates Tells Why He Was Converted to That System.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: In my letter of the 18th, perhaps I was hardly explicit enough as to the number of miles of mains required, when I stated five miles. I had in my mind that the old military milestone on Dundas street was at or near Adelaide street, one mile from the courthouse, a mile further east, would not go beyond Egerton street, making four miles of mains on York and Dundas streets, while one and a half or two miles would carry as far north as required.

My faith in the high-pressure system was developed some years ago, when on a visit to Philadelphia. Fire had broken out in a large cotton warehouse five stories high, between Sixth and Seventh streets, on Chestnut street. A line of six-inch hose was run from the fireboat to the scene of conflagration, and under a high-pressure and large stream the fire was soon extinguished.

As outlined, was supplemented by ample hose, a very much larger area could be protected by a very little cost. In placing the high-pressure pumping system at the point mentioned in my previous letter the low grounds to the west could be appropriated and if it ever became necessary to have a filtering system (which I am not an advocate of at present), this ground could be used for the filtering beds at a very little extra cost, when that time comes.

There is another thing that I would like to say a word about before closing. I believe that if a drive well process was inaugurated there would be a great danger of tapping the present springs, which might fulfill the condition of the contractor to supply so much water, but it might be at the expense of cutting off the present springs. That is a matter that should be seriously considered by those in authority and if there are any springs at present filtering into the river means should be taken to protect them from doing so.

SEIN FEINERS WAR ON NATIONALISTS

Propose to Contest the Six Irish Seats—Denounce Parliamentary Agitation.

Dublin, July 22.—The Sein Fein Society evidently is preparing for a trial of strength against the Irish Nationalist party in the pending miniature Irish general election. The resignation of Edward Blake, Irish Nationalist, for the south division of Longford, makes the fourth vacancy, and if the Nationalists challenge Sir Thomas Henry Grattan Esmond's contest in North Wexford, five seats will be vacated. Sir Thomas has declared himself as a Sein Feiner. At a big Sein Fein demonstration held by his constituency at Enniscorthy today, a letter from him was read, denouncing parliamentary agitation, as worthless, since England would never give home rule or any other concession for the asking.

"England," the letter continues, "is no colony; she is a sovereign nation, and should give up begging with bated breath, and whimpering humbly in a foreign legislature for the restoration of her stolen liberty."

A meeting was arranged to be held in Phoenix Park here Sunday to support the Sein Fein policy. It was attended by only 600 persons, although the park was crowded with Sunday visitors.

At a meeting today of the executive committee of the Irish League at Manor Hamilton, the center of Chas. J. Dolan's constituency, Mr. Dolan's action in joining the Sein Fein Society was condemned, and resolutions were adopted calling upon him to resign his seat in Parliament. The prospects of the Sein Feiners carrying any constituency except North Wexford are remote.
