

ON Wednesday a gentleman living at 422 Princess avenue, handed us a small advertisement of a stove for sale. He called this morning and stated that the stove was sold in the evening to a party who had read the advertisement in THE ADVERTISER. Thus one insertion fulfilled what three were paid for. The money, over the one insertion was returned.

EXTRAORDINARY ACTIVITY!

In British Naval and Military Circles—Menacing Indications.

Hong Kong, Nov. 3.—Extraordinary activity has prevailed in naval and military circles here during the past few days. But no information on the subject is obtainable. The British first-class cruiser Powerful has just taken on board over 2,000 tons of coal, and all the other British warships here are taking on board stores and ammunition. It is reported that they have been ordered to be ready for sea immediately. The British second-class cruiser Somerset, which was recalled from Manila, and arrived here last night. She is now coaling with all possible haste.

It is reported that the British gunboats have been ordered to rendezvous here. At the navy yard here the ordnance department is most active, and is engaged in mounting siege guns.

MENACING SIGN.

London, Nov. 3.—The fact that the coast-guardsmen throughout the United Kingdom have been warned to be in readiness for mobilization is regarded as a menacing sign. Many of them have already joined their ships.

CORNERING COAL.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 3.—A morning paper publishes the following: The probability of a war received fresh impetus yesterday by the action of England, who purchased a large amount of coal from the United States. Every day at her West Indian naval stations. In response to hurried cablegrams from London, ship brokers engaged in the West India trade spent the greater part of yesterday searching for tenders capable to transport the coal from Philadelphia and Newport News to points where it will be most convenient for English war craft to fill their bunkers. Sailing vessels from 1,000 to 2,000 tons carrying capacity are particularly in demand.

The first shipments are to be sent to Kingston, to be followed by vessels for Bermuda, St. Lucia, and Demerara, which are the principal ports in the West Indies subject to Great Britain. It is also proposed to discharge a part of the purchase at St. Thomas, a Danish island, where hulks will be used.

It was reported yesterday that the British warships had been ordered here to undergo slight repairs, which under ordinary circumstances would have been made at either Halifax or the Bermuda Islands.

KIPLING'S POPULARITY.

It has been stated by many critics that Mr. Kipling is essentially a man of the sea, but an incident connected with the publication of "The Truce of the Bear" would seem to dispute their judgment. When the poem was published in Literature, Messrs. Harper & Brothers advertised that the number containing the poem would be sent upon receipt of 10 cents, etc., and, strange to say, of the many orders received more than half were from women—a fact which tends to show that the genius of Mr. Kipling is appreciated by women as well as by men.

Oh, Springfield, how far thou art away; but the Fly Cigar is everywhere.

THE FASHODA SITUATION

Remains Without Material Change.

Gen. Kitchener's Brother To Be Governor of Khartoum.

Rare Heroism of Lord and Lady Cromer.

Native Tribes on the Niger Send in Their Submission to the British Forces—Nubians Defeated.

London, Nov. 3.—The situation regarding Fashoda is practically unchanged. Baron de Courcel, the French ambassador, who on Tuesday saw Sir Thomas Sanderson, permanent under secretary of state for foreign affairs, was absent from Lord Salisbury's reception yesterday. The special dispatches from Paris this morning repeat the semi-official statement that the evacuation of Fashoda is accepted in principle, but that other points in the Bahr-el-Ghazal region are aloft as to the Abyssinian expedition.

The Nile to assist the French, but nothing authentic is known on this point. M. Delcasse, French minister of foreign affairs, is expected to announce his policy in the Chamber of Deputies tomorrow (Friday). It is admitted on all sides that Fashoda offers no difficulty, provided a way can be found to save French amour propre.

JAMES BRYCE SPEAKS.

Right Hon. James Bryce, former under secretary of state for foreign affairs, subsequently president of the board of trade, and now member in the Liberal interest for Aberdeen, speaking there last evening, endorsed Lord Salisbury's stand on the Fashoda controversy, declaring that "the military control of all the navigable waters in the Bahr-el-Ghazal basin, as well as the Nile, must be secured to Egypt."

GOVERNOR OF KHARTOUM.

The London Daily Mail announces the appointment as governor of Khartoum of Col. Kitchener, brother of the arid, Gen. Lord Kitchener.

Major Marchand and two other Frenchmen, accompanied by Capt. Fittion, of the Egyptian army, are expected to arrive at Cairo this evening.

MARVELOUS HEROISM.

A correspondent, in commenting on the reported determination of Great Britain to establish a protectorate over Egypt, says:

Britain's occupation of Egypt is based solely on might, and has frequently been denounced by the Khedive himself, by his suzerain, the Sultan of Turkey, and by France, as illegal. The other powers have quietly tolerated. It is this that has caused the British Government to decide that the time has come to proclaim the protectorate over Egypt before the question of an international conference, or of the production of the sultan's concessions to France.

Realizing that no time was to be lost, Lord Cromer hurried back Lord Cromer to Cairo, he being the one strong man of sufficient force and resolution to take charge of the process of annexation of the land of the Nile, which he has practically ruled as British territory for the last fourteen years. His wife was dying here at the moment when it became necessary for him to return to his post. Knowing that her days were numbered, and being passionately devoted to her, he wished to resign in order to remain with her to the last. With

RARE HEROISM AND PATRIOTISM.

The dying peeress would not hear of his abandoning his post. She insisted in traveling out with him to Egypt, condemned as she was by the physicians at the time, and breathed her last in her husband's arms a few days after her arrival at Cairo. Such a sacrifice on the part of Lord and Lady Cromer would hardly have been necessary were not vast national interests at stake.

THE KAISER APPROVES.

There is every reason to believe that the German emperor is cognizant of this projected move on the part of Great Britain, and that his approval was obtained last summer at the time of the mysterious conferences between Arthur Balfour and the German ambassador here, concerning which so much speculation prevailed. Indeed, there is every reason to believe that it is this that has led him at the present moment to abandon his visit to Egypt, as he might otherwise find himself at Cairo as the guest of the sultan, and of the latter's subordinate, the Khedive, at the very moment when Lord Cromer was proclaiming the protectorate.

NATIVES SUBMIT.

Bonny, East Africa, Nov. 3.—The acting commissioner on the Niger coast protectorate, Major Galloway, has just completed his inspection of the Cross River district up to the German boundary, and reports that he received the submission of the native tribes who waged war with the protectorate last January. Towns are being rebuilt and trading has again commenced.

NUBIANS DEFEATED.

London, Nov. 3.—Advices from Uganda say that a battle was fought between the British and the Nubians, on the east coast of the Nile, in which 30 of the natives were killed, and the rest fled. One Indian trooper was killed and three wounded. The rebels are reported to be still infesting the locality of Ankoll, which is dangerous for Europeans.

DANAKIELS ON THE WAR PATH.

The Rome correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "The government has received news from Massowah, in the Red Sea, that 1,000 Danakiels, members of a tribe under Italian protection, recently attacked a caravan near Jibuti, on the west coast of the Gulf of Aden, belonging to the Abyssinian envoys, who were returning from Paris to the court of Emperor Menelik of Abyssinia, with Mr. Legerde, the representative of the French Government. The Danakiels, who occupy the territory between Obok and the mouth of the Nile, killed four French soldiers, and seized 400 camels, 4,000 rifles, a large quantity of ammunition and valuable gifts intended for the Negus. It is feared that the result will have complications with France, Russia and Abyssinia."

The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says: "The Austrian Cabinet considers an English protestate of the Philippines the only proper solution of the question."

CABLE NOTES.

A dispatch from Montevideo says rumors of a revolutionary outbreak in Uruguay continue.

United States Minister Straus, at Constantinople, asked Kaiser William to visit America, but the emperor declined, saying that America was so great that it would take him too long to see all the things he wished to see. When Prince Philip of Coburg obtained a divorce in August last from his faithless wife, the Princess Louise, the latter was sent home to her parents in Brussels. She has now mysteriously disappeared from her house given her by the King of the Belgians.

In the Cape Colony Assembly, Hon. W. P. Schreiner, the premier, introduced a bill proposing an annual contribution by the colony of £30,000 to the British navy.

The British steamer Calabar, from Acera for Liverpool, which was run down and wrecked at the French town of Gran Bassa, on the west coast of Africa, sank in seven fathoms of water. All her passengers and crew escaped.

The coroner's jury which has been inquiring into the death of Harold Frederic, novelist and journalist, who died at Henley on Oct. 10, have decided that further evidence is desirable before a verdict is rendered.

INCREASING CORDIALITY

Hon. John Bryce on Anglo-American Unity.

All Conditions Exist for Solid and Durable Friendship.

Terrible Mortality on a Spanish Transport—General Cables.

London, Nov. 3.—Referring to the increasing cordiality between the United States and Great Britain, Right Hon. John Bryce (who was a member of the last Gladstone ministry) said in a speech last evening: "When last in the United States I was much struck with the change in public sentiment. The spontaneous outburst of feeling in Great Britain when the European powers wished to intervene against the United States during the recent war with Spain made the Americans understand how close we felt the tie between them and ourselves. They have shown that they appreciate and reciprocate our sentiment. I would never advocate a formal alliance. At all events, the obstacles at present are serious, but all the conditions exist for a solid and durable friendship between America and Great Britain. They have no adverse interests anywhere in the world, and they have common aims in sundry regions. Everywhere each can render a great service to the other side, and they can understand each other easier than either one can understand any other foreign nation. Nature and history meant them to be friends, and the closer and deeper that friendship is the better it will be for the greatness and welfare of both."

A COFFIN SHIP.

Cadiz, Nov. 3.—The Spanish steamer Montserrat has arrived here from Santiago de Cuba with repatriated troops. There were 88 deaths on board of her during the voyage and 800 of her passengers are sick. The Spanish newspapers are venting the fiction on the Americans by publishing fictions to the effect that the United States sanitary officers at Gibara insisted upon the embarkation of dying Spanish soldiers.

DEATH OF A U. S. CONSUL.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—Mr. J. Goldschmidt, the United States consul-general here, died yesterday evening. He has been in ill health for some time past.

RUPTURE FEARED.

London, Nov. 3.—The Paris correspondent of the Morning Post says: "It is expected that a rupture of the peace negotiations between the United States and Spain will be officially announced on Friday. The feeling here is that the attitude of the Spaniards is irrational in view of the demands of the United States, and that they may ultimately regret having failed to agree quickly with the adversary."
