I had a beautiful flower, so fragile and sweet and fair.

I thought I only must love it and guard it with tender care;

So I loved my flower dearly and thought to keep it alway,

But the King of the Gardens saw it, and the Lord my King did say;

"Give me the beautiful flower thou guardest with tender care;

The winds and the storm will harm it, their fury it cannot bear.

Come to my heavenly garden and see in its perfect bloom

The flower you loved so truly, and thought that I plucked too soon."

Oh, then I shall know His reason, though I know it not today.

Why in its promising beauty He took my flower away. SUMNER—In proud and loving memory of Pte. Ira Sumner, who gave his life for King and country, November 25, 1915. b
