St. Augustine's Win C. & M. Game.
Yorkshire Society and St. Augustine's met on the Don Plains in a Church and Mercantile League game Saturday. Yorkshire won the toss and elected to bat. They started disastrously, the first 5 wickets falling for 3 runs. The batting of Bull 19 and O'Connell 12, however, improved matters a little, and the innings closed for 45. Hughes bowled splendidly, taking 8 wickets for 17 runs. St. Augustine's knocked out the necessary runs for the loss of only three wickets, the remaining batsmen carrying the score to 81. Kirschmann's 22 was a fine effort, a beautiful leg glide being his most noticeable stroke. Cotton took 4 wickets for 19 and Staley 4 for 6. The fielding of both teams might have been improved upon. St. Albans Beat Old Country Club.
On their own grounds a St. Albans team beat the Old Country Club by 8 to 23 in the first innings. In their second innings the Old Countrymen only scored in getting 10 runs for 5 wickets. The scoring was poor on either side, two of the St. Albans men being the only ones to reach doubles. The bowling of St. Albans proved too much for their opponents, G. Robertson getting 4 wickets for 4 runs, C. W. Ricketts 3 for 3, R. Kent 2 for 4, and H. Lester 4 for 10. For the lower Shenshens bowled well, taking 8 wickets for 23.

Victoria Quilting Club.
The week end handicap of the Victoria Quilting Club was held at 330 East Grand-street on Saturday and was marked by some grand pitching by J. Nichol, who was in excellent form, by defeating three good players namely, J. Polson, W. Carlyle and J. Mills, in succession. The best event of the day was the contest between Nichol and Carlyle in the third draw, but the former outpitched his opponent, leaving Carlyle in third place, J. Nichol 1, J. Mills 2, and W. Carlyle 3.

St. James Beat the Junction.
In a C. & M. League game, St. James' Cathedral C. C. won from Toronto Junction on the latter's grounds Saturday afternoon by a score of 68 to 50. Points for St. James, batted well, carrying his bat for a splendid 25 (not out). Saxton bowled well for Toronto Junction. He also bowled very effectively for the winners. The score:

Dovercourt C. C. Wins Again.
Saturday afternoon Dovercourt C. C. easily defeated last year's cup holders, Grace Church, by 70 to 34. Kent's bowling was the feature—seven wickets for 18 runs. He also made top score, and twice only just missed the hat trick. Rev. Mr. Vesey had his eye in and played finely for 11 (not out). Marriner held his end up and reached doubles. Walcott was the star for Grace Church—batted and bowled best. The score:

St. Pauls defeated St. Barnabas
Saturday in a Church and Mercantile League game on St. Barnabas' grounds the 10 for nine wickets to 30. The feature of the game was the splendid fielding of St. Paul's team, not the semblance of a slip being made by them and five difficult catches being made by them. H. G. Beatty 28 and J. Lowmabrough 20 were top scorers for St. Pauls, and Thackrah made 11 by good cricket for St. Barnabas. For St. Pauls A. Dalton took 4 wickets for 12 runs, and Spence 3 for 2.
