The annual meeting of the Home for Incurable Children, E.Bloor-street, yesterday afternoon, was largely attended. Mayor Oliver presided. Bishop Reeve and Rev. Dr. Davidson conducted devotional exercises.

His worship expressed his deep interest in the work of the home, and confidence that any appeal for assistance for extension of the work as necessity arose would receive favorable consider-ariose would receive favorable consideration from the city council.

Mrs. R. A. Donald, secretary, read the annual report. This proved to be an inspiring recital of the cheerfulness of the affilted children. It told how much those of them well enough to go had enprecised the corriger drives afhad appreciated the carriage drives af-forded by individual friends, their drive to the exhibition, a ride around the city in a private open car furnished by the Toronto Railway Company, and a pleasure trip by the Toronto Autonebile Club. Some of the children had been well enough to cultivate little flower beds in the summer, but most of them are very helpless. All are, in the judgment of the medical faculty, incurable The treasurer's report presented by Miss Maria Buchan was an encouraging one, but further financial aid is required for the establishment of a properly equipped laundry.

Dr. Shuttleworth reported that there are thirty children in the home. There had been an entire absence of contagious disease, and, notwithstanding that the children when received were suf-fering from some incurable allment. only one death, that of an infant, had occurred.
