Entertainment Presented by Grenadiers Will Long Be Remembered.

IN SONG AND STORY

Event One of Most Congenial in the Annals of Regiment.

One hundred and fifty Royal Gren-adiers, sergeants and officers, literally rocked and rolled with laughter, sang catchy and patriotic songs and peri-odically applauded and cheered during the Sist annual "Batoche" dinner and anniversary celebration in the sergeants mess parlors last night. The event will undoubtedly go down as one of the most congenial in the annais of the regiment. One of the funiest incidents of the entertainment, and there were many in connection with the program of ca-baret stunts, was the irresponsible sayings of a loquacious sergeant, who occupied a seat in a fur off corner and insisted on interrupting the speakers. When the silence in the room was most intense he would invariably sud-denly emit in a charlon voice some-thing about a "quarter lidow" Malor denly emit in a clarion voice some-thing about a "quarter blow." Major Burson was speaking seriously in com-plimenting the officers. "And after the regimental officer," he was saying, "we have the -----" Trail, B.C.

"we have the ----"" "Guarter blow" suddenly declared the disconcerting one. It sent the ban-gueters into a paroxysm of laughter." Major Burson relieved himself of em-barrassment by telling a funny story, which only increased the uproar. An-other strikingly funny act was the burlesque imitation of a half man half woman, staged by "Billy" McKendrie. Cries and cat calls accompanied his appearance. He brought down the house with a humorous song. Speakers were: Sergt.-Major Bennett who presided; Col. A. E. Gooderham of the 10th Regiment, Col. Kingsmill of the 123rd, Lieut.-Col. J. Cooper Mason, Major Hunt, Major Burson, Capt. Band and Capt. Scott. During their praise of the regiment's service during the northwest rebellion and the present war it was stated that about war it was stated that about cers and about 4000 men of the 185 officers and about 4000 men of the regiment have been ore are serving in the present conflict. The banquet included an extensive menu, and no detail was lacking to arouse the convivial spirit that reigned thrucut the entertainment. Songs were sung by Joë Williams, Bert Harvey, Andrew Murdison and Harvey Lloyd.
