Asparagus was very plentiful, and, tho early in the morning an odd basket brought $1.50, the choicest was a slow sale at $1.25 per 11-quart basket, the greater quantity selling at $1 to $1.10, while some only brought 90c, and there was a lot gill unsold at five o'clock, which looks as if still lower prices would prevail today.

The British Columbia white potatoes, which are row arriving, however, are of spiendid cuality, and, as they sell at $1.55 to $1.90, and a few at $2 per bag, this should have a tendency to keep the price of New Brunswicks down. The new potatoes are also coming in freely and gradually declining in price; and this shruld be another helpful factor in the price reduction of this much-used vegetable.

Hothouse tomatoes came in more freely yesterday, the No. 1's selling at 23c to $25 per bag, the No. 1's selling at 23c to $25 per bag, the No. 1's selling at 23c to $25 per bag, the No. 1's selling at 23c to $25 per bag, the No. 1's selling at 23c to $25 per bag, the No. 1's selling at 23c to $25 per bag, the No. 1's selling at 23c to $25 per bag, the No. 1's selling at 23c to $25 per bag, the No. 1's selling at 23c to $25 per bag, the No. 1's selling at 23c to $25 per bag.

Should Take the Hint.

In Canada it is time for women to take the hint and begin to seriously contemplate the possibility of a short-rage along agricultural and other lines. If this never comes, so much the better, the saving in any case will not be lost, and any surplus that may be acquired can easily find patriotic outlet in helping countries which have felt the pressure of poverty, even to the point of starvation and death.

Thrift should not be confined to one class. Those who legislate for soldiors' wives make the mistake of bringing class distinction into conditions which stretch out and involve the whole of the community. War and invasion make no distinction of class, and if direct hardship ever came to Canada in the shape of a shortage of food, suffering would be general. BROCKVILLE, Ont., May 30.—Edward L. Rueff, a painter and decorator, residing in Ogdensburg, was found dead in a skiff on the St. Lawrence a few miles below here. His body was hanging out of the boat head sub-merged and his feet caught under the seat. He had been suffering from heart disease, and it is thought the exertion of rowing from Ogdensburg to the fishing grounds of that section brought on a sudden attack, causing him to topple into the water.
