MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR THE FALLEN

North Parkdale Methodist Church Honors Members Who Died Fighting.

Fifteen members of the congregation of the North Parkdale Methodist Church have laid down their lives in the present conflict, and last night at the close of an impressive memorial service, their pictures were flashed on a screen. It was a pathetic incident, and many of those present, friends and relatives of the dead heroes, were overcome, one woman having fainted out. The pastor, Rev. Dr. J. C. Speer, gave a brief description of the work in connection with the church which the dead soldiers had performed. At the close he sounded a word of warning to the present government. "One of the tragedies of the past has been the wounded old soldier," he said, "and I pray that it may never be again. The time is coming when we have to take care of the wounded soldiers, and the wives and orphans, and I cannot think that any government existing or likely to exist, will not do what ever they can to provide for these. They have not done so as yet, but they must do all they can for the dependents of these brave men who went away, leaving all they held dear to lay down their lives. For those who have died, we can do nothing, but this country owes it to their memory to take care of the dependents, and this is the message that the brave lads who have gone would wish me to impart to you."

The preacher pointed out that the Book of Revelations was a book of word pictures, and said that no one could write a word picture today that would represent the present crisis better. He maintained that the Lord Jesus Christ was the leading personality in the present war, "I have no hesitation in saying that as far as the leader of our armies is concerned, that leader is Jesus Christ," he said. Out of the total of 150 of the gallant officers who have died, the following are the names of the gallant officers who have died: Noble and Hugh Sproul (twin brothers), Kenneth MacDonald, Harcourt Switzer, Carl Brockenshire, Walter Caven, Peter Blodding, James Pettigrew, Robert Buckle, Gordon Morgan, Stanley Vandervoort, James Bennett, W. H. Thompson, A. Worrie and W. H. Kemp.

WAR VETERANS RECEIVED OVATION

Hundred and Fifty United States Cadets Took Part in Ceremony.

A very enthusiastic reception was accorded a party of 82 war heroes on arrival at North Toronto station Sunday morning. The party included 44 Toronto men. Those taking part in the welcome included 150 of the United States cadet visitors, the band of the 106th Regiment, 50 members of the Royal Flying Corps and several hundred citizens, including Mayor Church, Hon. W. D. McPherson, James W. Somers, Capt. Crawford, Sergt.-Major Geo. Crighton, T. Stevenson, S. I. Riddell and Rev. (Major) Dixon. The returned soldiers were taken to the Spadina Military Hospital in special flag-bedecked street cars.

In the auditorium at the hospital speeches of welcome were heard from Hon. W. D. McPherson, on behalf of the province; Mayor Church, on behalf of the city; and Col. J. H. Miller, commander of the visiting American soldiers. The latter spoke of the admiration caused in the States by Canada's prominent share in the war's activities, and declared his own country was resolved to put all available energy out on behalf of the allies.

Following the reception, the returned soldiers were taken to their own homes in cars provided by the Ontario Motor League and citizens. Many of the motor cars were driven by women.

RETURNED MEN WANTED BY FORGING COMPANY

Proposed to Have Sixty-Six Per Cent. of Staff From Ranks of Veterans.

After demonstrating a practical manner in which returned men may be rehabilitated to industrial activity, Major R. C. Cockburn has undertaken to have 66 per cent. of the entire staff of the British Forgings, Limited, recruited from the ranks of the returned men before the end of September. As yard superintendent of the company, Major Cockburn, who saw service with the first division, has taken a keen interest in returned men, and at the present time 137 ex-soldiers are employed at the plant at higher wages than they ever before received. Only 16 of this number are working as guards, and many who started as guards have risen to positions of responsibility and trust. The plant requires many more men, and Major Cockburn is looking for returned men to work as timekeepers, checkers, yard foremen, helpers, electricians and mechanics of all trades.
