The season being over, nobody paid any attention to the score, but much to batting. The attendance was small, but this was no criterion of the interest felt in the big series. It is intense.

The recent announcements of those who, as brokers, working between the box office and the ultimate consumer, that they would have plenty of tickets for all ultra-profiteering prices, went into sclipse during the day, but their prices soared. The brokers paid back thousands of dollars in deposits, and it was learned definitely that none of them had more than a dozen of the three-game tickets for sale. The price of the three-game tickets for sale to the three same tickets are tickets as attributed to the energy which Owner Comiskey displayed in seeking to circumvent the practice. He held back distribution until this morning. He numbered the tickets and indexed the names of purchasers; he obtained the advertising columns of the newspapers wherever he found that a purchaser had transferred his ticket to a broker.

The lines at four ticket offices at the ball park began forming at 7 o'clock this morning, and the procession continued until all of the $15,000 reserved seat tickets had been given out.

In the matter of betting, the locals talked loudly of six to five on the Comiskey team, and New York as talked the same odds as to their men, but what actual betting could be located was at even money on the result. A bonus of $1000 to Manager Lajoie for his achievement in winning the International League pennant with the Leafs, is what the Toronto Club has done for the veteran.

The local club made money on the season, and they appreciated what Lajoie had done, and only felt that he should be given a bonus. Other players, including Blackburne, Thompson, Hearne, also received smaller sums, and in all the Toronto Club gave out over $2000 in bonuses.

In the exhibition series with the Indianapolis Club, which was run by the team, each member of the Leafs received $304 as his share, which, with over $100. elevated and surface lines and numerous bouleyards. The playing field is laid out with the home plate in the southwest corner of the field, thus allowing the batter to face northeest and making right field the "sun garden." The distance behind the plate to the first row of boxes in the grand stand is $2 feet. The distance down the right and hot field foul lines from the home plate to the bleachers ferace is $62 feet. From home plate to the centre field fence is $450 feet. In comparison to these measurements the Polo Grounds affords much less in playing space, Chicago being much the more extensive. To begin with, the distance behind the plate to the front of the New York grand stand is 63 feet, which is 19 feet less than the like territory at Comiskey Park. From the home plate to the centre field bleacher at the Giants' ground the measurement is 420 feet, just 30 feet less than at the home of the White Sox. In width the Chicago field is much more extensive than at team, each member of the Leafs received $304 as his share, which, with over $100 each for the barnstorming tour of western Ontario, gives a nize, tidy sum for each player, besides his season's salary.
