HOLY NAME SOCIETY REPORTS GOOD PROGRESS

The regular fall quarterly meeting of the Archdiocesan Holy Name Society was held last night at St. Michael's College Hall. Previous to the meeting the delegates assembled in St. Basil's Church, adjoining the college. Rev. Father, Hayes officiated at benediction of the blessed sacrament.

It was the intention of the assessment commissioner to get a bylaw thru council on Monday authorizing him to proceed with the expropriation of the land needed for the extension and widening of Teraulay street, but the by-law was not ready in time, and all that council did was to grant the application for authority to bring in an expropriation bylaw. The expropriation bylaw, says the commissioner, will be before council at its next meeting.
