DEFEAT ST. JAMES Y.P.A. DOUBLES CHAMPIONS IN BADMINTON PLAY

CHAMPIONS LAST SEASON LOSE TO WINNERS IN 1926

Play-Off With Tournay Winners Results In Cup Challenger's Victory

The semi-final and final rounds of the St. James' Y.P.A. Cup Tournament were completed last evening and the contests were very close and interesting all the way through. In the semi-final round, Miss E. K. and M. Scott lost out to Miss Anderson and Frost in games that were brim full of excitement, many startling plays being made. As is customary this year's champions then played the present cup holders, Miss E. Frost and D. Coffey, to see who would have the coveted trophy for 1926. The cup holders, however, did not prove themselves strong enough to hold off the challengers and lost out to them in the straight games.

$2,000,000 Spent In Maine For Yachts

PORTLAND, Me., April 20.—More than $2,000,000 worth of pleasure craft, yachts and schooners have been built within the past year, or are under way or have been contracted for in Maine shipyards, it was learned today. One Boston designer, John G. Alden, has placed more than $500,000 of boat building in Maine shipyards within the last 12 months. A New Bedford firm has brought $1,200,000 of power yacht contracts to this State within the same period.

MILES SETS NEW RECORD WINNING MARATHON RACE

Runner From Sydney Mines, N. S., Defeats Several Famous Stars

BOSTON, Mass., April 19.—A couple of thousand years ago an Athenian youth woundled at the Battle of Marathon routed into the public square of Athens and shouting, "We are victors," fell dead.
John C. Miles, of Sydney Mines, N. S., breathing heavily and driving his weary legs with an effort, rushed over the finish line a winner in a race commemorating that ancient event today, but what he said to his father and mother who were waiting joyfully to receive him is not recorded.
It was a great triumph for the eighteen year old Canadian and Nova Scotian, this defeat of a fast field of eighty-eight over the steep and difficult course of the Boston A. A. marathon. It was astonishing to the hundreds at the finish who looked to see Clarence Demar four times winner of the event, or Albin Stenroos, the Finnish Olympic champion, win the race.

DORCHESTER HORSE BREEDERS ELECT

F. C. Bowes Again is Chosen President—Will Build More Sheds

DORCHESTER, April 19.—The Dorchester Horse Breeders' Association held their annual meeting last week in the County Court House with the president, Fred C. Bowes in the chair.
Secretary Fred M. Cook, reported being successful in having the track affiliated with the National Trotting Association, through communication with Secretary W. H. Gochter of Hartford, Conn.
It was decided to make repairs to the track and add more sheds.
The following officers were elected for the ensuing year, president, Fred C. Bowes (re-elected); vice-president, Lovens Naars; secretary, Ernest Card; Ernest Buck, W. S. Pickles, Neil McPherson and Willard R. Lawrence.

Commissioner Wigmore made a brief opening address in which he referred to the excellent showing made by the various teams in the league and the good spirit shown by the various contestants.

YACHT CLUB TO MEET.
A meeting of the Saint John Model Yacht Club will be held on Wednesday evening in the office of the American Dye Works Company, Elm street, when business of importance will be transacted and matters pertaining to the coming racing season will be discussed. A number of the members have built new yachts during the winter season and are anxious to get them into competition. Commodore Morford expects that the racing this summer will be better than ever.

STECHER WINS.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., April 20.—Joe Stecher, claimant of the world's heavyweight wrestling championship, defeated Nick Latta, Notre Dame University, in two out of three falls here last night.
LANCASTER, Pa.—Benny Bass, Philadelphia, won by a knockout over Ralph Hepman, New Haven; three rounds.
MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Young Ross, Syracuse, beat Frankie Garcia, Los Angeles, 8 rounds.

FAMILIAR FIGURES BACK IN SPOTLIGHT

Three incidents in big league opening day are pictured. Krenetz Mountain Landis, Kaiser, czar, king and commissioner of baseball, is seen throwing out the first ball at Chicago White Sox-St. Louis Browns game in the former city, won by the Sox 5 to 1. Uncle Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Dodgers, is seen welcoming "Iron Man" Joe McGinnis back to big time just before Brooklyn beat the Giants, 3 to 0. And, of course, here's Nick Atwell putting some of his funny stuff with Manager Stan Harris of the champion Senators at Washington as a prelude to Walter Johnson's 15-inning 1 to 0 victory over the Macks.

LEWISTON MANAGER AFTER BOXING BOUTS

The sports editor of The Times-Star is in receipt of a communication from Charles Turner, a member of the Lewiston Athletic Club, Lewiston, Me., in which he said that he was manager of several boxers who were anxious to meet him of their own weight in the Maritime Provinces. He particularly mentioned Ruby Levine, whom he described as the bantam and featherweight champion of Northern New England and who easily outboxed Lou Lambert at Portland on April 13. He also mentioned Bing Conley, whom he claimed was middle and light heavyweight champion of Northern New England and who in his last bout, on April 9 at Portland, Me., kayoed Bing Therrien in the sixth round. He also said that he was looking after Cannonball Cole, 140 pounds; Bluenose Parent, 145 pounds, and Frank Prevercher, 140 pounds.

BOXING AT BANGOR.

BANGOR, Me., April 19.—The boxing game is to come back here after six months or so with new shows. The city council has granted Duncan McDonald a limited license and he is to stage bouts every two weeks for 4 time.

DEFEATS CHALLENGER

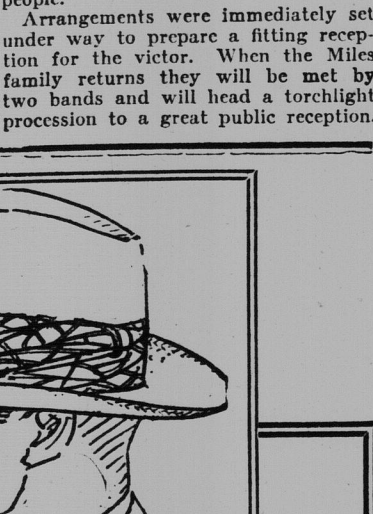

LONDON, Eng., April 19.—Eky Clark, of Scotland, flyweight champion of Great Britain, defeated Kid Socks, popular challenger, in their 20-round title bout here tonight, the referee stopping the fight in the last round.

MOVING IN MAY?

ON WHAT DAY do you move? From where? To where?

Give us this information right now by telephone, personal call or letter, and we will see to it that you are not inconvenienced so far as your gas and electric service is concerned.
Kindly remember that when a family moves, the service has to be cut off in vacated house and turned on at the new home, making two visits for each move. In some cases the meter is transferred from the family moving out to the family coming in, requiring one cut-off, one turn-on and one transfer, or a total of three visits from the service man for two moves.
However, there is never any trouble when our customers co-operate with us to avoid last minute orders. Help us to help you.
