KILLED IN ISLAND YARD

A. E. Corbett Victim of Shocking Railway Accident Last Night.

An accident, which resulted in the death of Alfred E. Corbett, of 84 City road, engine foreman of the C. N. R., and injured Charles R. McCullum, brakeman of the same railway, occurred yesterday afternoon at 5:50 o'clock in the station yards. The men were engaged with an engine crew in making up the Boston express when the fatality occurred.

Four cars of the train were on one switch and four additional cars on an adjoining switch which were moved over to couple to the first cars. The cars had been brought together to within eight feet, when the two men went in to adjust the coupling pin. The draw-bar was found to be frozen, and McCullum grasped it on one side and tried to pull it over while Corbett, using a breaker shoe as a hammer, endeavored to drive it over from the other side. While thus engaged the cars were brought together and Corbett's head was crushed between the bumper plates, causing instant death. McCullum had the first and second fingers of his left hand crushed.

Mr. Corbett was born at Armstrong's Corner, Queens county, in 1886 and leaves, besides his wife who was formerly Miss Blanch Nutter, two small children, Jessie, aged four, and Olive, aged two years. His mother is Mrs. H. M. Corbett and he left three brothers, Charles, of Portland (Me.), and James and Thomas, of Welsford; and one sister, Mrs. Leonard Dunn, of Walsford. He was a member of Holyrock L. O. L. No. 27 and also of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. The body will be sent to Welsford for interment, probably on Monday.

Coroner H. A. Porter said last evening that he did not think it would be necessary to hold an inquest, as from what he saw, there was no evidence of culpable negligence on the part of any one; he would not hold an inquest into the family of the victim requested it.

Emmerson Fuel Co. 115 CITY ROAD.

WHO PAYS?

After fourteen years' experience in the fuel business we have found that one of the chief reasons for the high cost of fuel is the careless man who forgets to pay his bill, compelling the dealer to make his living profit, plus the poor account out of the man who does pay. We have therefore decided to eliminate the poor accounts entirely, by selling our cash on delivery. We will surprise you to know only it will be worth your while to know what this will mean to you in the value received for your dollar.

We have the largest wood-warehouse in St. John and are thus able to guarantee DRY WOOD any time. We have it hard or soft, and will sell more dry wood and screened coal for the same money than any dealer who has to put your name on the ledger. Trusting that all our customers with their friends that pay their bills, will come and see us, or call us Main 1227, we are, as always, yours to command.
