MEN'S HATS LOWER IN PRICE

Although practically everything in wearing apparel is higher in price this season than ever before, men's hats are an article that can be procured at low prices. This opportunity is not universal but is to be had at the Oak Hill Hat Shop, where they have just received a large shipment from one of the best Canadian makers. These hats would sell in the regular way for $7, but Scovil Bros. have decided to give their customers an opportunity to save money on their Spring headgear by offering this entire lot at $6.95 each, figuring on a large turnover at a minimum profit. Furthermore, every one of the hats carries the Scovil Bros. name and is fully guaranteed. Many different shades are represented and only the very latest blocks. This sale will continue until Monday, but it will be a wise man who reads then hastens, as Scovil Bros. anticipate quick selling on these hats, they are so truly a real bargain.

Gunn rendered two violin selections. Among the numbers on the programme were selections from the following composers: Mozart, Rubenstein, Gullman, Widor and Gounod.
