Richmond, Va., July 2.—A deal was closed here last night, contingent upon the sanction of the International and Virginia leagues, whereby the Baltimore team in the International Baseball League, will be transferred to Richmond. Jack Dunn, owner and manager of the Baltimore team, left last night for New York to attend a meeting of the International League, which he expects to approve the transfer. A meeting of the Virginia League will be held today and if an offer from Lynchburg to take over the Richmond franchise is approved the Baltimore team is expected to play its first game here on Saturday.

TURF. Maritime and Maine Circuit. A three days' race meeting in August is now being considered by managers of the Fredericton Trotting Park. It is planned to form a circuit which will comprise northern and eastern Maine towns as well as those in the maritime provinces. The idea is to have a circuit in the maritime provinces which will be able to get the horses which are starting on the Maine track earlier in the season, and will thus be on route east. The circuit will comprise Houlton, Presque Isle, Carleton Place, Bangor, St. Stephen, Calais, Pembroke, Machias, St. John, Moncton, Halifax, Charlottetown, Fredericton and Chatham.
