MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

Fire in the Alex. Ford building at Sackville yesterday did damage to the extent of about $3,000, mostly insured.

There were three tenants in the building, the Western Union Telegraph Company, C. F. Gibbs, and a family named Fitzpatrick.

Frank Barnard, K. C. of Victoria, B. C. is the new lieutenant-governor of British Columbia.

Three German professors, Messrs Mueller, Benzinger, and Trapper, of Toronto University, have been given "leave of absence" as a compromise on a demand for their dismissal. Charges against them were not substantiated.

The German and Russian official bureaus are disputing with each other concerning the outcome of the battle of Lodz in Poland, claiming the victory for its own army.

Le Matin, Paris, says that papers found on killed German officers prove that in the original plans Germany intended that Italy should violate Swiss neutrality by sending an army across Switzerland to attack France.

BLIND CONGRESSMAN UNDAUNTED BY AFFLICTION. Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 3—Like Sen. Gore of Oklahoma, Congressman-elect Thomas D. Schall of Minnesota is totally blind.

But his affliction was no handicap in the recent campaign when he made a strenuous campaign of speechmaking and held dozens of mass meetings in his district. Schall was elected a congressman-at-large.
