SERMON FROM A CROP BULLETIN

A "Blamed Fool" Farmer in Ontario Who Planted Tobacco—Laugh, However, is His

(Peter McArthur in Toronto Globe.)

There is a great text in Crop Bulletin 109, I wish I could do it justice. The correspondent from Elgin county writes:

"One farmer in Southwold planted ten or twelve acres of tobacco, and his neighbors thought him foolish, but he is likely to receive $3,000 for his crop."

Of course, the neighbors thought him foolish, and I will wager that they all laughed at him. Haw! haw! When the news first leaked out that the "blamed fool" was going to plant tobacco on the rich river flats some neighbor probably went to the telephone and called up a friend at the other side of the township to tell him the joke, and all the people who were on the line took down their receivers quietly and listened to what was being said, and in less than twenty-four hours the joke was known all over Elgin county, and was slopping over into Kent and Middlesex, and everybody was laughing. Haw! haw! Of course, it doesn't seem so all-fired funny now that he is raking in that $3,000. "Did you say three thousand dollars? Gosh! I think I'll go in for tobacco myself next year. I always thought it would be a profitable crop on the west field. It ought to do well on that rich loam. Three thousand dollars! Gosh!" That's probably the way they are talking now, but far be it from me to rub it in. Laughing at the man who tries to do a new thing is not peculiar to farmers. Even nations do it.

THE TENDER LAMB.

I shiver with the biting cold,
I turn my collar up and wear
My heavy gloves and hold my ears
To keep them from the nipping air.
The tears come flowing from my eyes
Goose pimples decorate my hide,
But wife still wears her peek-a-boos
And keeps her furs thrown open wide.

I wrap a muffler round my neck,
To throat affections I am prone,
My underwear is lined with fleece,
And it is none too warm, I own,
But daughter Jane trips forth at night
A thing of beauty and of charm,
In gown low-neck, low cut pumps,
And wears her neck-piece on her arm.
—Detroit Free Press.

THE SERIOUS OBJECTION.

Mrs. Snoops—"Stop that fiendish racket, children. Your papa is talking to some one over the telephone and I can't hear a word he says."

Complexions Flaked Of At Home

(From Pilgrim Magazine.)

The girl with the poor complexion complains, "I have to touch up my cheeks. I am sallow and a sight, and only my make-up saves me."

Now, as a matter of fact, more women spoil their good looks than improve them with cosmetics. The practice certainly is unnecessary, now that the virtues of ordinary mercolized wax as a beautifier have become known. It has been found that the mercolide in the wax has wonderful absorbent powers. It causes the faded or discolored scarf skin to flake off in minute, almost imperceptible particles, so gently, gradually, as to cause no inconvenience at all. In this way the old complexion is actually removed—likewise all fine lines, pimples, blotches, moth patches and other surface defects. A new complexion appears—a clear, smooth, youthful, healthy hued skin such as no paint, powder or lotion can produce. Mercolized wax, to be had at any drug store, is applied like cold cream.

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; HOME AND ABROAD

Campbellton Won.

Campbellton curlers won in the McLel- [illegible] night by five points. The game was close and exciting.

Scotchmen Win.

The Scotch curlers defeated the Ottawa Rideaus 76 to 66 in Ottawa yesterday. The game was played in the open, and the Scotchmen excelled. The match was witnessed by many spectators, including Their Royal Highnesses.

Basket Ball

The Y. M. C. A. Scout team defeated the St. James' team 9 to 6 in a fast game of basket ball at the Y. M. C. A. last night.

Bowling

The Ramblers won four points from the Insurance men in the game in the City Bowling League on Black's alleys last night. The totals were 1329 to 1210.

Kennel

Wrestling

Zbyszko Defeats Ordermann.

Minneapolis, Jan. 17—In a finish wrestling match in the Auditorium last night, Zbyszko defeated Henry Ordemann in straight falls. The bout was witnessed by 6,000 spectators and was the fastest and most scientific ever seen in Minneapolis.

Hockey

The Quebec hockey team defeated the Montreal Wanderers 5 to 4 at Montreal last night.

Ottawa Beaten.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 18—The Ottawa hockey team went down to its third defeat within two weeks in the Arena last night when the Canadiens again uncovered the unexpected, and defeated the champions by five to four in a fast game that abounded in sensations. It was spectacular hockey from beginning to end and the wonderful skating of the visitors forced Ottawa out to such a pace that there was never any cessation of the remarkable whirl, but it was ragged hockey for the most part, the close checking of the Canadiens contributing largely to this.

Play was clean from beginning to end. Ottawa redeemed a poor beginning by a wonderful finish and had the play continued another five minutes, they might have won, but on the hours play the Canadiens deserved to win. They outskated the champions at all stages except in the last five minutes of the match, when Ottawa, goaded on by a wild crowd, threw themselves desperately into the attack. But in the first and second periods, the "speed boys" from Montreal had it all over the champions in every respect. Their defence was superior to that of the Ottawas.

The Ring

News of the Boxers.

Charley White of Chicago and Willie Gi[illegible] to 2.

"Brooklyn" Tommy Sullivan and Eddie Randall will box in St. Louis on Jan. 29.

Patsy Corrigan the Australian boxer, is conducting a boxing club in Oklahoma City.

Jimmy Britt, who has seen Bombardier Wells in action, says that Wells has a lot to learn about the game and that he would be easy game for Jack Johnson.

Tom Tracey the Australian boxer who was knocked out by Joe Walcott in Boston, is now the boxing instructor at the Multnomah Club in Portland, Or., succeeding Tommy Ryan.

Jimmy Britt, of the first joint of the finger that he broke in his battle with Jimmy Barry at the Armory A. A. removed in Australia after his first battle in that country. It was on account of [illegible] Flynn showed so poorly in his battle there.

Too many boxing clubs is now the cry of the sports and promoters in New York. Several clubs already have closed their doors, and others are expected to do so in the course of a few days.

Terry Martin broke one of his hands in his bout with Tom Sawyer at Pittsfield on last Monday night, and Martin has called off his bout with Jack Dillon in Pittsburg next Saturday night.

Young Erne of Philadelphia made a poor showing against Tommy Furey of Atteboro at the Rhode Island, A. C. in Thornton, R. I., on Tuesday night.

For the first six or seven rounds the bout was tame, both men apparently waiting for a showdown, but in the second half there was no doubt among the spectators that they were watching a real bout. Furey was wild at times but when he landed it was usually with a good one, although not effective.

Erne's self-confidence seemed to be his main resource. He came back strong, but his antagonistic attitude brought out Furey's fighting spirit and Erne became more cautious. Erne was quicker and more clever than Furey, however, and his blows began to tell before the tenth round. Furey's face was pretty well battered, both eyes showing the effect of the smashing they had received. In the final round, Furey put his best efforts forth, and Erne did his best to finish the job. But it was too late; he was tired and showed it in his tactics, having none of the form he had shown earlier in the fight.

Fireman Jim Flynn, who is to box Jack Johnson, knocked out Al Williams of Cleveland in the second round of a ten round bout in Toronto last night.

Baseball

Stahl Back at Work Again.

Chicago, Jan. 18—J. Garland Stahl, the new manager of the Boston Red Sox, who has been ill at his home, is now able to attend to his duties again at the Woodlawn Trust and Savings Bank, of which institution he is the cashier. He has been suffering from the grippe. Stahl is enthusiastic over the prospects for the Boston team next season. He says that it will be the best team that brains and money can get, and one that is second to none in the league.

The entire Red Sox squad, numbering about thirty, will gather at Hot Springs Ark., about March 10, and the work of taking out the kinks will start at once. Jake says he will play first base and he already has started conditioning himself.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

In Dublin yesterday judgment was given by Justice Kenny, in a case where one Usher, an Irish landlord, was married at midnight by a priest to a servant girl in her bedroom with but one witness present. He declared that the civil law upheld the legality of the marriage, although in the eyes of the Catholic church it was illegal.

President Taft in a message to congress yesterday dealt with economy and efficiency, saying that there should be a better return from the millions of dollars spent yearly by the government. He advocated [illegible] should be put under the civil service, and that no appointments should be made except through merit, thus doing away with political influence.

Joseph Beach, of Brunswick, was elected warden of Queens county at the meeting of the municipal council in Gagetown yesterday.

Fully three quarters of a [illegible] from the Battery to the church and there 6,000 children sang the "Te Deum." The cardinal spoke and imparted the blessing of the Pope. Easier To Remove Than Conceal Wrinkles

(National Hygienic Review.)

"When you try to conceal your wrinkles with paste made from beans, you deceive yourself, not me. Let a defect, which is possibly but small, appear undisguised. A fault concealed is presumed to be great."

This little epigram of Martial's suggests the present day tendency to avoid the use of cosmetics which can only conceal or hide facial defects, and to adopt instead rational means of removing the same. For the removal of wrinkles, saggy cheeks and baggy chins, the saxolite prescription, which goes to the foundation of these troubles, seems to have come into general use since its virtues became known but a short time ago. One ounce of saxolite, procurable at any drug store, is dissolved in a half pint of witch hazel. Used as a wash lotion this tightens the skin immediately, effectually smoothing out wrinkles and "drawing in" hanging skin or folds.
