BOTH CAN'T BE TRUE. (P. E. Inland Farmer.)

Under the reciprocity agreement, the duties on all farm implements brought in from the United States are to be reduced from 2 to 10 per cent. The will no doubt compel Canadian manufacturers of farm implements, who have become millionaires under protection, to reduce the price of Canadian-made implements to the same extent.

GREAT LONDON JOURNAL SHOWS UP FOLLY OF CONSERVATIVE CAMPAIGN

It is childish to say to Canadians that if they and Americans both become richer through new opportunities of trading with each other, Canada will be guilty of a disloyal act to Great Britain. Of course we know that tariff reformers here do not say that directly; they put the blame on British governments. But there is no escaping the simple fact that, after all, the proposed reciprocity agreement is an instrument between the responsible governments of Washington and Ottawa.

UNITED STATES FARMERS SAY CANADA GETS ALL BENEFIT

(American Agriculturist, Organ of United States Farmers) "It would seem to be a foregone conclusion that reciprocity will win in the Canadian elections by a vote of two to one. Why? Because this measure will enormously stimulate Canadian agriculture without in any way injuring Canadian manufacturers. Canada has absolutely everything to gain and utterly nothing to lose by approving reciprocity. It is not too much to say that should reciprocity be endorsed at the Canadian elections September 21 the ultimate result thereof will be to double the value of every acre of good land and timber and of every ton or cwt lot in the dominion."

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

DIDN'T LIKE THE MEDICINE. "Follow Patriots," said the Exalted Patriot at Patriot's Hall Saturday evening. "The peril which menace the dear old flag makes it necessary to present arguments against reciprocity. Here are a few:—1.—The Yankees will flood our markets with produce and lower the price. 2.—The Yankee demagogues will raise the price and increase the cost of living. 3.—'Hold on there!' interjected a back-bencher. 'How can it lower the price and raise it at the same time?' 'Put that person out,' said the Exalted Patriot. 'Take his flag away from him. He is a traitor.' 'The navy must also be worthy of Mr. Bourassa and Mr. Monk.' 'Wait!' shouted a third back-bencher. 'Give us time to swallow that last dose. I don't believe I can keep it down.' 'Sneez that man's flag,' said the Exalted Patriot, 'and throw him out. He is a traitor.' 'Come on, boys,' said the back-bencher. 'We may as well go together. It'll be your turn if you stay long enough, and you may as well go now. I guess we must be a nest of traitors.' So many of them did go that the Exalted Patriot forthwith adjourned the meeting.
