ARCHIBALD HART,

Silk, Cotton and Woollen Dyer,—Barrington Street.
Four Doors South of St. Andrew's Church.

RETURNS his grateful acknowledgements, for the very liberal patronage extended to him, since his eighteen months residence in Halifax, and seven years in Nova Scotia; and he pledges himself to those families, who may continue to honor him with their patronage, that the greatest attention will be paid to all orders from Town and Country.

Mr. H. begs to inform the Ladies and Gentlemen of the city of Halifax and its vicinity, that he carefully Cleans and Dyes every article of Silk Dresses, Crape, Gauze, and Thread Veils; Velvet and Silk Bonnets; Canton Crape, and Silk Shawls of all kinds; Ribbons, Handkerchiefs, Gloves and Stockings.

BLACK changed to GREEN, BROWN, CLARET, and other Colors. Gentlemen's Wearing Apparel, Coats, Vests, and Trowsers, cleaned and re-dyed. Ladies' Habits, Mantles and Cloaks of every description; Indiana, Moreens, Mouseline de Laine, Saxones, and Orleans Cloth Dresses. Also, Carpets, Crumb and Table Cloths, and Hearth Rugs.

A. H. has a superior method of Cleaning and renovating Gentlemen's Clothes, by which the cloth is not in the least injured; but appears little inferior to new, from the admirable surface produced, and from taking out the spots in almost every case.

 All articles returned in one week, and in urgent cases not to exceed three days. Further particulars will be made known on calling at the Establishment..

Halifax, Nov. 1, 1842.
