

The Church is absolutely in need of a new furnace, which must be put in immediately and which it is estimated will cost about $350.00 ; this will be an additional expenditure for next year.

Your Committee recommend that four Sabbaths next year be set apart for special collections, viz.: first Sabbaths of November, December, February and March ; the amount collected to be applied towards the expenditure of heating the Church properly, and any surplus to go to liquidate the deficiency of this year.

The Board loses a valuable member by the removal of Mr. Woods to Stratford. He has been connected with the Management of St. Andrew's Church consecutively for thirteen years. Our best wishes go with him and his family, for their success and happiness.

Besides Mr. Woods' unexpired term, one year, for which a new member must be elected, Messrs. Harold, Carroll, Irving, and Ross, retire this year, all of whom are eligible for re-election.

ALEX. ROSS,
Chairman.

T. D. MINNES,
