Admits Team Was Outclassed.

For the next two weeks, Pres. Haughton will be busy with his plans for the Braves' big opening with the Giants on April II. He says the New York team has had a wonderful barnstorming tour lin the southwest, and that no greater attraction could be desired for Braves George Kennedy, of the Canadiens, affect for opening day.

Field, Braves Field, and the Poo gravity, and the Pacific Coast Hockey Association, "that the last two games have been so clean. The game last night, as the deciding game of a world's series, and played without a penalty, will stand as a record. The brand of hockey was especially good last night."

Pete Muldoon, manager of the world's come back. So to make certain that they would be removed so far from the city authorities observed that when ordered out of town tramps walked only a short distance and then champions, was all smiles.

"We were outclassed," said Manager attraction could be desired for Braves George Kennedy, of the Canadiens, after the game, "and you can say for me

PUBLIC NOTICE!

I desire to take this opportunity of thanking the many patrons of this store, and the public generally, for their hearty co-operation during the selling-off of this stock. My health would net permit of my continuing the business, and I had no alternative but to sell out everything and close it up. The past few weeks' selling has brought it down to the last few thousand dollars worth, and now I am very anxious to get through with the strain which it has necessitated. I fully realize that only the most drastic measures will accomplish my object in the short space of time now at my disposal. . If you will read the prices carefully, you will fully appreciate the fact that I am in real earnest. I don't care what we get for the balance of the stock— S. W. McMACKIN.
