

Course, leading to the Degree of Bachelor of Arts; and the Divinity Course, leading to the Degree of Bachelor of Divinity. Honor Courses are provided in Classics, Mathematics, Science, Philosophy, and in English Language and Literature.

ADMISSION OF WOMEN.—Women are received on a perfect equality with men in all lectures and competition for prizes and honors. Mount Allison was the first chartered College in Canada to admit women to all the privileges of regular Collegiate Courses and Degrees. Young women wishing to pursue an undergraduate course will find at Mount Allison facilities for thorough collegiate training under the most favorable conditions as regards health, and domestic and social advantages. Board may be had at the Ladies' College on reasonable terms. In addition to the regular undergraduate work, the best instruction in Music and the Fine Arts is available, and those not fully prepared for matriculation have opportunities of bringing up the studies in which they are deficient.

AFFILIATION WITH DALHOUSIE LAW SCHOOL.—Graduates in Arts of this University who, during their undergraduate course, have attended classes in Constitutional History, International Law, and Contracts, and have passed their examinations as required by the Law Faculty of Dalhousie College, can graduate in the Law School of said College in two years from time of entrance, provided they take, during these two years, all other required studies.

EXAMINATIONS.—Written examinations, three hours for each paper, are held at the close of each term. The Honor Examinations are held for the most part at the end of the year, slightly in advance of the ordinary class examinations.

A student's standing depends both on the result of the written examination and on his work during the term, regular attendance at lectures, etc. The lists are arranged in three divisions: First Class, Second Class, and Pass.

Supplementary examinations will be held twice each year, at the beginning of the first term, while the Matriculation
