THINGS OF VALUE.

There is danger in neglecting a cold. Many who have died of consumption dated their troubles from exposure, followed by a cold which settled on their lungs, and in a short time they were beyond the skill of the best physicians. Had they used Bickel's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, before it was too late, their lives would have been spared. This medicine has no equal for curing coughs, colds and all affections of the throat and lungs.

It is inflammatory Rheumatism.—Mr. S. Ackerman, an commercial traveler, Belleville, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. T. B. Bickel's Rheumatic Oil for inflammatory rheumatism, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating pain. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. T. B. Bickel's Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others, as it did so much for me."

"I don't see why they call that actor Bottas at ham."

"And why not?"

"Well his case is hopeless, and a ham may be cured."

Mr. Parkyill—Why, Annettel, you have broken your pretty teeth! How did you come to do it?

Little Annettel—Oh, I was just playing hired girl!

"Is Bibb a good neighbor?"

"No. He's very unpopular, because he paints his house every spring, and that makes everybody in the block have to do the same."

Cassidy—Ye say McGee interred thor fidget as an unknown?

Dumas—Yis, awn he wor unknown whin th' fether allow got t'ro wid him.

Smith—Brown seems to act coolly toward you. Does he owe you money?

Jones—No, but he wanted to.

"Miss Whiff encourages your attentions, doesn't she?"

"Yes, but I'm only a side line."

SLEEPLESSNESS.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmenter's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

THE FLEETING EXERCISES.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be no relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These come from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmenter's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative force, restoring the organs to healthy action, dispelling depression, and reviving the flagging energies.

Not Ashamed Of Him.

An Englishman named Crowe was a fine classical scholar and a distinguished orator. He made his own position in life, even at a time when classes were far more seriously regarded in England than they are at present.

His father was a carpenter, working in the town of Winchester, and on the most loving terms with his son. One day the son, then an eminent man was standing near the cathedral door, talking to the dean and warden, when his father passed by.

The old man was in his working dress, with his rule sticking from his pocket, and was evidently to spare the son a salutation. But the younger Crowe called out, in good Hampshire dialect:

"Here, father! If thee baint ashamed of I, I baint ashamed of thee!"

Acute and Chronic Rheumatism

are equally influenced by the almost magical pain subduing power of Polson's Nerviline, equal in medicinal value to five times the quantity of any other rheumatic remedy. Nerviline cures because it reaches the source of the disease and drives it out of the system. Nerviline is an unusually good rheumatic cure, and makes many annual cures. Just rub it in the next time you have an attack. The immediate result will surprise you. 25c.

IF YOU CATCH COLD.

Many things may happen when you catch cold, but the thing that usually happens first is a cough. An inflammation starts up in the bronchial tubes or in the throat, and the discharge of mucus from the head constantly irritates the throat. Then the very contraction of the throat muscles in the act of coughing helps to irritate so that the more you cough the more you have to cough. It is, of course, beyond question that in many cases the irritation started in this way results in lung troubles that are called by serious names. It is in this irritated bronchial tube that the germ of consumption finds lodgment and breeds.

Great numbers of people disregard cough at first, and pay the penalty of neglect. Cough never did any one any good. It should be dispensed with promptly. Adanson's Botanic Cough Balsam is a well known remedy, and it is the surest and quickest cough cure known to-day. It does not deceive by drugging the throat. It soothes the irritated parts and heals them, then the cough stops of its own accord. The action of this medicine is so simple that it seems like nature's own provision for curing a cough. Every druggist has it. 25 cents. Be sure to get the genuine, which has "F. W. Kinsman & Co." blown in the bottle.

The philosophic reader with a sense of humor will be interested in the case of the Chicago parachute manufacturer who was accidentally locked in his shop by the janitor the other day. The shop was on the third floor, and there were parachutes on every hand. Nevertheless the manufacturer shouted till he attracted attention, and then waited till the fire department brought a ladder and took him down.

To Reduce Your Boot Measure One Size Isn't half as hard neither is it as painful as before the introduction of Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor. In twenty four hours the corn is removed. Pretty and small feet are well assured on everybody, but it can't be done unless you use Putnam's—others are not nearly so good. Putnam's is the best. At druggists.
