FOREIGN NEWS
TOLD IN BRIEF

St. John Man, Mistaken for Strike Breaker, is Assaulted at Halifax — Montreal may have a Civic Shake-Up.

Mystery is Solved.
Toronto, May 17.—The mystery surrounding the suicide of a Miss Mabel Thompson in a Milan hotel, some time ago, has been cleared. It appears that the victim belonged to Toronto, and was a daughter of the late James Thompson of this city. Miss Thompson and W. K. Thompson of Tyndall avenue, and Mrs. Florence Perry, of 13 Close avenue, are relatives. Miss Thompson had not been in Toronto for about five years, having been traveling on the continent for practically the whole of that time, practicing her profession as a nurse when the occasion demanded. She was 35 years of age.

St. John Man Assaulted.
Halifax, May 17.—Bliss A. Dunfield, traveler for the J. A. Moore Lumber Company, of St. John, a passenger on the Ocean Limited was mistaken for a strikebreaker and assaulted as he stepped from the train on arrival at North street Station last night. Mr. Dunfield was struck over the eye with a stone and badly cut. He states that he called at the office of a North End physician and requested to have the wound dressed. The physician refused to treat him, saying that he would not "dress the wound of a d—strikebreaker injured." He then went to the office of another physician and had the injury attended to.

Civic Shake-Up in Montreal.
Montreal, May 17.—In an effort to secure more efficient work from the various departments, the Board of Control has, it is said, but not yet confirmed, decided to reorganize all the departments at the City Hall. Among men slated to retire or to be removed are Hon. L. O. David, City Clerk; Dr. Louis Laberge, Medical Officer of Health; Alcide Chausse, Building Inspector, and L. O. Champagne, Boiler Inspector, and many others. A number of these, such as the two first named, have been in the city's service for over thirty-five years.

Captain Scott's Estate.
London, May 17.—The estate left by Capt. Robert E. Scott, the British explorer, who perished on his way back from the South Pole, amounts to $16,155, according to his will, which was offered for probate yesterday. King George gave an audience yesterday to Commander Evans, who was second in command of the Scott expedition, and heard from him a narrative of their travels and the tragedy. The King conferred on Commander Evans the Order of Commander of the Bath.

Exploration Party Perished.
London, May 17.—An exploration party of eleven Germans and five Norwegians which set out in June last for the Arctic have been lost. The only survivor is Captain Riiser-Larsen.

New Boats for C. P. R.
London, May 17.—It was learned here today that the Canadian Pacific Railway will build two new Atlantic liners of about the size of the Albatross of the Allan line. These will be boats of the finest type, superior to any now in the Canadian service, and will be in addition to the two magnificent one class boats now building for the C. P. R.
