OBSERVANCE OF FESTAL DAY OF IRISHMEN HERE

Weather Not Propitious for Yesterday's Procession, but Societies Made Creditable Turnout—Scholarly Sermon by Father Walker.

The weather was not propitious for the observance yesterday of St. Patrick's Day, the festival day of the descendants of Ireland. Notwithstanding that fact quite a large proportion of the members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association participated in the annual parade to the Cathedral.

The procession was formed about 2.30 o'clock in the following order:

City Cornet Band.
Hibernian Knights, uniform rank.
Hibernian Cadets.
Ancient Order of Hibernians.
C. M. B. A.

The band, under the direction of Bandmaster Waddington, played the usual appropriate Irish airs during the march to the church. There was a large congregation at the service at the Cathedral. Bishop LeBlanc was among the clergy in the sanctuary. The sermon was preached by Rev. Father Walker and was one of the most scholarly addresses heard in the Cathedral in recent years. Father Walker paid a high tribute to the worth of Ireland's patron saint, giving a history of his life and his work among the Irish people.

After the service at the Cathedral the parade was re-formed and marched throughout the principal streets of the city to the rooms of the A. O. H., where it was disbanded.

Although the observance of St. Patrick's Day by the societies was postponed until Sunday, Irishmen generally were the shamrocks on Saturday. At the churches on Saturday there were special services and the clergy men in their addresses made especial reference to the work of St. Patrick. Collections for the orphans were taken at the churches on Saturday, that at the Cathedral amounting to over $200.

Announcement was made at the Cathedral yesterday that the forty hours' devotion in honor of the Real Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament would be held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday next. The devotions will be opened with the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at the high mass on Friday morning at ten o'clock. The devotions will afford to the Catholic people of the city an opportunity to fulfill the obligation of making their Easter duty.

RID STOMACH OF GASES, SOURNESS, AND INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapiesin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes.

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; if there is acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorder is a revelation to those who try it.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of William Currie, a seaman, who died in the General Public Hospital on Thursday, took place Saturday afternoon from the Seamen's Institute. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Thompson and interment was made in Fernhill. Mr. Currie was thirty-eight years old and was on a transport. He was a native of Ontario.

The funeral of E. H. Flewelling took place Saturday morning from his late residence, 19 Cedar street. The body was taken to Brown's Pals for interment. Services were conducted Friday evening by Rev. B. H. Nobles, H. Nobles.

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS TO BE DISCUSSED

Conference at Ottawa Today is Expected to Take Up Matter of Nationalization of Port of St. John.

The president of the Board of Trade has sent to Sir George Foster a communication to be read at the conference in regard to port and transportation matters which is to be held this morning at the capital. In the communication the president points out the views of the board in respect to port development and urges that if possible St. John be given a larger share of the summer business connected with the shipment of munitions and supplies to England and France.

It is rumored that one very important question for the port of St. John is to come up for discussion, one of much greater importance than this summer's trade, namely, the nationalization of the port, and it is expected that Commissioner Russell will bring forward his definite proposal looking toward that end. Should this rumor prove to be well founded it will be good news for the citizens of this city and will relieve the taxpayers of a burden which they have borne cheerfully but which they will nevertheless be glad to be clear of.

OBITUARY.

Leonard J. Morrison.

The death of Leonard J., only son of Neil J. and Annie M. Morrison, took place yesterday at his parents' residence, 225 Prince William street, after an illness lasting about one month. He was survived by his father and mother and one sister who will have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from his parents' residence.

Mrs. Agnes Cowden Smith.
The death of Mrs. Agnes Cowden Smith, wife of William Smith, took place Saturday afternoon at her residence, 321 Princess street. Besides her husband, one daughter, Jean Miller Smith, survives. Mrs. Robert McKean, Mrs. Alexander Duff and Mrs. Annie T. Bingham, all of this city, are sisters. The deceased had been ill during two years. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from her late residence.

Captain Joseph.
The many friends of Captain Joseph Priest will regret to hear of his death, which took place yesterday at his residence, 70 High street. The deceased had been a well known resident of St. John for a large number of years, and was a prominent figure about the harbor front. He contracted a severe attack of rheumatism while loading on board the steamer, Annie Lord, at Apple River, N. S., in December last, and has been confined to his bed since that time. Deceased was in his 64th year.

The late Captain Priest is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Jennie Murphy, of Machias, Maine, and three sons, William, Frank and Harry, all of this city. The funeral will take place from his late residence tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Service will be conducted by Rev. R. P. McKim.

Mrs. Fannie Daley.
The very many friends of Mrs. Fannie Daley, wife of James Daley, conductor with the government railway, were shocked to learn that she died suddenly in Montreal on Saturday morning.

Mrs. Daley only recently accompanied her daughter, Ethel, to Montreal, where she was to consult a specialist, and appeared to be in perfect health. Heart trouble is thought to have been the cause of her sudden death. She was a lady of a most lovable disposition and she will be mourned by a wide circle of friends. The deceased's husband on Saturday morning was in charge of the express from Halifax to St. John and the sad news was received by him when he was handed a telegram at Moncton. Conductor Daley brought his train through to this city and continued through to Montreal to take charge of the body. The remains will arrive in the city on the Atlantic Express today and the funeral will take place from the Princess street home tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock.

Mrs. Samuel B. Evans.
The death of Mrs. Samuel B. Evans occurred suddenly yesterday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Ring, 219 Duke street. Mrs. Evans was a well known resident of West St. John, having lived there nearly all her life. She leaves her husband, one daughter, two sisters and two grand-children to mourn. The sisters are Mrs. D. Miller Olive and Mrs.

Thomas Mirey of Dorchester, Mass. The funeral, which will be private, will take place from her late residence tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

Miss Bernice Goodrup.
The death of Miss Bernice Goodrup took place at the home of her parents, 357 Haymarket Square, yesterday afternoon after a lingering illness. Miss Goodrup, who was in her 18th year, was for some time an employee of the N. B. Telephone Co. and her bright personality will be much missed among her young companions. The funeral will take place Tuesday morning at 9.30 to the Cathedral.

Death of Child.
The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Burns will sympathize with them in the loss of their child, Paul, aged two months, who died yesterday afternoon.

MARRIAGES.

Osborne-Howe.

At Saint Martin's, on Tuesday, Feb. 20th, Mr. William J. Osborne and Miss M. Aileen Howe were united in marriage at Holy Trinity Church at 7 p.m. The church was beautifully decorated by the choir, of which the bride was an esteemed member. The bride, who was given away by her father, Mr. Charles Howe, looked very pretty in a wedding gown of white duchess satin, with lace and pearl trimming and veil with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of carnations and roses. The bride was attended by Miss Belle Osborne, sister of the groom, who wore a pretty dress of embroidered net with hat to match. The groom was attended by Mr. Horace Howe, brother of the bride. The ushers were Mr. Samuel Merlin and Mr. Samuel Osborne. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. F. J. LeRoy, during which the choir sang "The Voice that Breathed 'er Eden'" and "Oh Perfect Love." After the ceremony the guests went to the home of the bride's parents where a dainty supper was served. The groom's gift to the maid of honor was a signet ring, and to the bridesmaid a pair of gold cuff links. The bride was the recipient of many handsome gifts. After a short honeymoon the couple will reside in St. John West. Mr. and Mrs. Osborne have the best wishes of a very large circle of friends in St. Martin's, by whom they will be greatly missed.
