Crew of Rewa Shocked When George Puckett Was Found Lifeless in Bunk—Body Not Buried at Sea—Coroner Notified and Visited Vessel, But There is to Be No Inquest.

Monday, Oct. 16
 With her flag at half-mast, the iron-masted schooner Rewa, in command of Captain W. B. McLean, arrived in port at an early hour yesterday morning, having on board the body of George Puckett, a deck hand, who succumbed to heart action on the trip here from New York. The man was known to be addicted to fits and to have a constitution unfitted to the strenuous work inseparable from the life of a sailor, but his death was sudden, and it came as a shock to the other members of the crew when one of their number went to call Puckett to take his watch, and found him lying lifeless in his bunk.
 The discovery was made on Friday night as the vessel was little more than a day's sail from here the body was not

The bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, and looked charm-den, while Mrs. Eugene Whitcombe presided at the organ.

The church was prettily decorated with ferns, potted plants and cut flowers, and looked very attractive with drawn blinds and lights turned on.
 After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's father.
 About fifty guests sat down to lunch, served in a pavilion on the lawn.

 $1,000 from the bride's father and a num-

HIS ANNOUNCEMENT
 It is understood that he is to suc-

 Appointed Lieut.-Governor Next Spring is the Rumor.

Tuesday, Oct. 17.
 Dr. J. W. Daniel, M.P., last night gave out the following statement:
 "To the electors of the City and County of St. John:
 "Gentlemen.—The result of the recent general election held on the 21st September last was, as you know, to make a complete change in the government of the country, and Mr. R. L. Borden who had been leader of the opposition for several years past was called on by the governor general to form a new ministry. In our system of government it has been usual in the former of the dominion represented therein and one of the portfolios assigned to it.
 Mr. Borden has not departed from this custom and in the undoubted right to the office of his prerogative in this respect has called upon the Honorable J. D.
 Hazen, the premier of the province, to enter his cabinet and become minister of marine and fisheries and minister of the important departments of the disposal of the prime minister, and if the naval programme passed by parliament is to be carried into effect it will be in many respects the most important, best being responsible for the right expenditure of many millions of money.
 "I think New Brunswick is to be congratulated on having so important a portfolio assigned to its representative.
 "Here in the city of St. John a large amount of necessary expenditure has been made in the past, and more will be required to place this port in a proper condition to do the increased business which we have every reason to expect will come to it, commensurate with the growth of the country and its transportation facilities; and the question of nationalizing the port will have to receive early attention.
 Under the circumstances I feel it is a matter of much importance to this port and this constituency that it should be represented by a minister of the crown if possible.
 "Mr. Hazen is a resident of this city and his interests are here. He is well and favorably known not only in this province but all over the dominion and I am assured that his appointment to his high office carries with it the endorsement of the people of this province. He, however, has no seat in the Parliament of Canada.
 It is therefore necessary for him to obtain the confidence of the House of Commons, and I think I am acting in the best interests of all concerned if I place him at the disposal of the electors of this city and county in my favor.
 "I have to thank, and do so most sincerely, the people of this city especially, and the county as well, for the confidence for the abundant marks of confidence they have shown in me since I first asked for their suffrages in February, 1904; I appreciate their confidence most highly, and their memory will always be with me.
 I sincerely hope you will join with me in according to Mr. Hazen as the representative of this city and county that generous recognition you have so freely given to me. In retiring from the representation of this city and county I wish to assure my friends and supporters that my influence will still and always be at their disposal.
 "Yours sincerely,
 "Although Dr. Daniel would say nothing last night further than the foregoing formal statement, it is generally understood that Senator Josiah Wood is to be made Lieut.-Governor of New Brunswick, and that Dr. Daniel will succeed him in the senate. Lieut.-Governor Tweedie's term does not expire until next March, but it is understood that Senator Wood will resign at once and is to be appointed governor as soon as the position becomes vacant.
