

directive work of the Intercollegiate Committee. The 1895 records showed 8,000 men in Association Bible Classes, 20 Associations with General Secretaries, 23 with separate buildings, 1,000 delegates at Summer Schools, 35 publications on College work and 4 International College Secretaries.

The movement is directed from New York city as headquarters. We are kept in close touch with it through correspondence and the visits of the Secretaries. Our own Association owes much to the supervision of the Intercollegiate Committee, and calls for the prayer and support of its members for this commendable and most necessary work.
