

oph. to fill towards the person of the Son of God offices of the Seraphim toward the Eternal Father.
 and Saint Anne was not deprived of this seraphic privilege. Her grand son has moreover shared with his power of healing the sick and of making the lame walk, and he thereby authorizes her to chant a hymn, if not by herself, at least by the lips of the blessed miraculously cured.

Do you wish, dear readers, to see your young children and little brothers blessed by God? Be devout towards St. Anne, and you will see the spirit of grace, of Anne (for her name signifies grace), make the hearts skip with joy, as the infant John the Baptist.
 should it happen, that despairing of other means,
 you are obliged to undertake the traditional pilgrimage to Beaupré, to correct an unruly child, you will come away agreeably surprised to hold by the hand not a rebellious child, but a young Samuel, as with Anne of Brittany, or a little Mary, as with Anne of Joachim, who may one day, like their patrons and models, leave to devote themselves to the service of God, or vow to of perfection in the cloister, and pray for you.

For the Annals, G. S.

GRIMAGES TO STE. ANNE DE BEAUPRÉ, IN 1889.

MAY.

"Le Cercle Catholique," Quebec.

1st. pilg. image from St. Sauveur, Quebec.

The Ladies, Normal School, Quebec.

JUNE.

1st. pilgrimage from St. Roch, Quebec.

The Laval Normal School, Quebec.

St. Augustine.