NOTICE.—All parties indebted for the Record, previous to the commencement of the year, must forward the several amounts; the only exceptions are those who have arranged with the Secretary.

In several instances we have to thank our agents for an increase in the circulation of the Record; but, to none are we more indebted than to the Rev. Mr. Christie, of Wallace; from that single congregation, he has sent us a list of eighty subscribers, an increase on the last year of fifty per cent., and we trust that all our clergymen will exert themselves as much as he has done, and there is little doubt that our circulation will be such, that the Record will become self-sustaining. We must urge that agents be punctual in their payments. As there is still a considerable amount due for the past year, we are indebted to the printer, and unless their arrears are paid up, we will fall short of a large amount at the end of the year. We hope that all who are in arrears will see that it is their duty to pay at once.

WILLIAM JACK.
