SADLER & CO'S. NEW PUBLICATIONS.

A NEW WORK.

BY MRS. SADLER.

JUST PUBLISHED, 'THE BLAKES AND FLANIGANS.' A Tale illustrative of Irish Life in the United States. By Mrs. J. Sadler, Author of 'Willy Burke,' 'New Lights,' or, 'Life in Galway,' 'Alice Riordan,' &c., &c.

Although this Work has only been published a few weeks, the first edition of two thousand copies have already been sold. The Catholic press have been unanimous in praise of the Work. We select the following extracts from many notices:—

'In its permanent and corrected form, we wish "The Blakes and Flanigans" a place in every household, and we could not wish an Irish household a better guide, or a more accurate social chart, of the dangers and temptations with which they especially have to combat in this state of society.'—American Celt.

'We earnestly hope it may find a place in every Catholic household, and that it may be carefully read by every Catholic father and mother in the Province.'—True Witness.

'We are indebted to the publishers for a copy of this Work, which, like all Mrs. Sadler's writings, can be read with interest and profit.'—Baltimore Catholic Mirror.

'Mrs. Sadler has been the successful authoress of several interesting stories published heretofore, and we have no doubt, that the Work the Sadlers have just published will add to her reputation.'—N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

'Independent, however, of the principle which it inculcates, the story is interesting and well-told, and is of a nature to please persons of all creeds and countries. Like all other Works of the Sadlers, the typographical execution is splendid.'—Toronto Mirror.

'We can assert that it is one of the most useful books of the day, and the most pertinent to the circumstances in which we are now placed with regard to religious education.'—Toronto Catholic Citizen.

'The accomplished Authoress has put the Catholics of America under a strong obligation by this most excellent Work, the best ever written by her. We wish it to be wide spread.'—Buffalo Catholic Sentinel.

'The tale is well written and graphically told, and maintains the high position Mrs. Sadler has already attained in the world of letters.'—Montreal Pilot.

NEW EDITIONS.

The BEST and CHEAPEST CATECHISM for Schools and Families published, is the

'DOCTRINAL AND SPIRITUAL CATECHISM.' By the Rev. Pere Collot, Doctor of the Sorbonne. Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. Sadler. For the use of the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

This is considered by competent judges as the most complete, and at the same time, the most concise Catechism of the Christian Religion and of Scripture History that has yet been offered to the public. It is admirably adapted for adults requiring instruction as well as for children. The answers are all so condensed that they are easily committed to memory; and there is not a single point connected with religion, either of doctrine, discipline, or ceremonial, that is not fully explained.

We know that this work requires only to be known to secure for it a very wide circulation. In order to place the work within the reach of every person, we have determined to put it at the following prices. 12mo., 440 pages, half bound, 1s 10d; muslin, 2s 6d; to schools and colleges, we will put them at 2s 5s per hundred.

SIXTH EDITION.

'NEW LIGHTS; or, LIFE IN GALWAY.' A Tale of the New Reformation. By Mrs. J. Sadler. Illustrated with 2 engravings, 443 pages, 12mo. Cloth, 2s 6d; Cloth, gilt, 3s 9d; Cloth, full gilt, 5s.

GREAT SUCCESS OF THE POPULAR CATHOLIC LIBRARY.

The Six Volumes of the Library published, are the most interesting as well as the most useful Catholic Books yet issued from the American Press.

FIFTH EDITION.—1. VOL.

'FABIOLA; or, The Church of the Catacombs.' By His Eminence Cardinal Wiseman. 12mo. of 400 pages; cloth, extra, 3s 9d; gilt, 5s.

The Press of Europe and America are unanimous in praise of this work. We give a few extracts below:—

'Eminently popular and attractive in its character, 'Fabiola' is in many respects one of the most remarkable works in the whole range of Modern Fiction. The reader will recognize at once those characteristics which have ever sufficed to identify one illustrious pen.'—Dublin Review.

'Worthy to stand among the highest in this kind of literature.'—Catholic Standard.

'Were we to speak of 'Fabiola' in the strong terms our feelings would prompt, we should be deemed extravagant by those who have not read it. It is a most charming book, a truly popular work; and alike pleasing to the scholar and general reader.'—Brownson's Review.

'We would not deprive our readers of the pleasure that is in store for them from the perusal of 'Fabiola'; we will therefore refrain from any further extracts from this truly fascinating work. We know, in fact, no book which has, of late years, issued from the press, so worthy of the attention of the Catholic reader as 'Fabiola.' It is a most charming Catholic story, most exquisitely told.'—True Witness.

SIXTH VOLUME POPULAR LIBRARY.

'The Life of St. Francis of Rome; Blessed Lucy of Narni; Dominica of Baradiso; and Anne De Montmorency, Solitary of the Pyrennees.' By Lady Fullerton. With an Essay on the Miraculous Life of the Saints, by J. M. Capes, Esq. 12mo., cloth, extra, 2s 6d; gilt, 3s 9d.

CATHOLIC LEGENDS, (Volume III. of the Popular Library) containing the following:—The Legend of Blessed Sadoe and the Forty-nine Martyrs; The Church of St. Sabina; The Vision of the Scholar; The Legend of Blessed Egecius; Our Lady of Charities; The Legend of Blessed Bernard and his two Novices; The Lake of the Apostles; The Child of the Jew; Our Lady of Galloro; The Children of Justini; The Deliverance of Antwerp; Our Lady of Good Counsel; The Three Knights of St. John; The Convent of St. Cecilia; The Knight of Champfleury; Quilma, the Moor-

Gate of Heaven; or way of the Child of Mary. A Manual of Prayer and Instructions, compiled from approved sources for the use of Young Persons. Illustrated with forty plates. 32 mo., at prices from 1s to 15s.

The following notice of the work, is from the Buffalo Catholic Sentinel:—

'This is a "pocket edition" brought out with clear type and very neatly bound, and its low price brings it within the reach of every person. In fact, this little volume is like all the publications of said firm—good value for its price.'

NOW COMPLETE, the most elegant Work published this year—

A MONUMENT TO THE GLORY OF MARY. New and illustrated Work. Published with the approbation of the Most Rev. John Hughes, D.D., Archbishop of New York.

'LIFE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF GOD.' with the history of the Devotion to her; completed by the Traditions of the East, the Writings of Fathers, and Private History of the Jews. By the Abbe Orsini. To which is added the Meditations on the Litany of the Blessed Virgin.—By the Abbe Edouard Barthe. Translated from the French by Mrs. J. Sadler.

This superb work is now complete, and is offered to the public at one-third the price of the French edition. Printed on the finest paper, and illustrated with 16 steel engravings.—740 pages, Imperial 8vo.

The following notice of the Work is from Brownson's Review for October, 1855:—

'The style in which this volume is presented to the public does great honor to the publishers. The engravings are well executed and selected from the best models. Like all Mrs. Sadler's translations, it is carefully and correctly translated. One can read it without having the thought of its being a translation continually before the mind. The Abbe Barthe's Meditations on the Litany of Loretto, also translated by Mrs. Sadler, greatly enhance the value of this volume. We most heartily commend it to all those who wish to possess the most valuable Life of the Blessed Virgin which has appeared in this country.'

PROSPECTUS

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, FORDHAM, WESTCHESTER COUNTY, N.Y.

THIS Institution is incorporated with the privilege of a University, and is conducted by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus. It is situated at Fordham, in a most picturesque and healthy part of the County of Westchester, eleven miles distant from the City of New York and three from Harlem—very easy of approach at all seasons, either by private conveyance or by the railway, which lies along the foot of the beautiful lawn in front of the College.

The grounds are extensive, and well laid out for College purposes.

The fathers, desirous of bestowing the most conscientious care upon the domestic comfort of the pupils, have deputed to this important and highly responsible department persons of tried skill, whose training and experience fit them for the peculiar wants of an institution which purports to be one large family. The students are in three distinct divisions—the senior, the middle, and the junior—each having its separate halls and separate play-grounds, and each presided over by distinct officers and professors.

The system of government being paternal, the observance of established discipline is obtained by the mild, persuasive, yet firm means of rightly understood parental authority.

Letters from or to students, not known to be from or to parents, are subject to inspection.

Books, papers, periodicals, are not allowed circulation among the students without having previously been submitted to authority. The students are not allowed to go beyond the college precincts unless accompanied by their professors or tutors.

Visits of students to the city are not sanctioned except for such as have their parents residing in the city; and the interests of the studies, as well as those of the moral training, are found not to warrant their frequency over once in three months. Even students not having their parents in New York may sometimes be furnished the means of visiting the city. But for no case of such absence from college will permission be granted except at the express wish of the parents or guardians, and for the reasons submitted to the president.

There will be a recess of one week at Christmas, but none at Easter.

The regular classical course of instruction embraces the Hebrew, Greek, Latin, English, and French languages; Religion, Elocution, Poetry, and Rhetoric; Geography, Mythology, and History; Arithmetic, Book-keeping, and Mathematics; Natural, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy.

There are two semi-annual examinations: the first towards the end of January, the second before the annual commencement towards the middle of July.

At any time during the year, and especially at the first examination, if any one be found worthy of passing up to a higher class he will be promoted; and such promotion shall be held equivalent to the honors of the class from which he passed up. Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts are required to undergo an examination in Natural, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy, and in Mathematics, before the faculty of the University. They must, besides, have given evidences of their progress in the Greek and Latin languages and in literature.

Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts must, for the space of two years, have creditably pursued some liberal and learned profession.

When it is the wish of parents or guardians to have sons or wards fitted for commercial pursuits, means are taken to direct and adapt their studies accordingly.

There are two preparatory classes, in which beginners are taught spelling, reading, writing, the first elements of English Grammar, of Geography, and Arithmetic.

The German and Spanish languages are taught, if required, but together with music, drawing, and other similar accomplishments, form extra charges. Twice a week there is a gratuitous lesson of vocal music for the beginners of the preparatory classes.

The Collegiate year commences on the first Monday of September, and ends about the 15th of July, with a public exhibition and distribution of premiums.

TERMS:

Board, Tuition, and Use of Bedding, per Annum, $200 payable half-yearly in advance. Washing and Mending of Linen, 15

Physician's Fees, N.B.—There is an additional charge of $15 for students remaining during the summer vacation.

2. For a few years past, owing to the high price of every kind of provisions, it was found necessary to call on the parents for the additional charge of $20. This transitory measure, however, is not likely to be kept up unless on account of the pressure of the hard times and with the agreement of the parents.

Book, stationery, clothes, linen, &c., are also furnished by the College at current prices, or may be procured by the parents or guardians residing in the city. Each student, on entering, must be provided with three suits for summer and three for winter; with at least six shirts, six pairs of woollen and six pairs of cotton socks, six pocket handkerchiefs, six towels, four cravats, four pairs of shoes or boots, one pair of overshoes, a cloak or overcoat; a silver spoon, a silver fork, and a silver drinking cup, marked with his name.

No advances are made by the institution for articles of clothing, or for any similar expenses, unless an equivalent sum be deposited in the hands of the treasurer of the College.

With regard to pocket-money, it is desirable that parents should allow their sons no more than a moderate sum, and that this be left with the treasurer of the College, to be given as prudence may suggest or occasion require.

Students coming from any foreign country, or from a distance exceeding 500 miles, should have guardians appointed in or near the city, who will be responsible for the regular payment of bills as they become due, and be willing to receive the student in case of dismissal.

Semi-annual reports or bulletins will be sent to parents or guardians, informing them of the progress, application, health, &c., of their sons or wards.
