

Winters pair wins Winters Dart Cup

By EDO VAN BELKOM

The second annual Winter's Dart Cup competition was won by a team from Winter's College for the second straight year.

The team of Chung Kwong and Ray Yap, both fourth year business students from Malaysia, took first prize by winning the best of five final match by a score of 3-1.

The two are relatively new to the sport of darts and have only been playing for five months.

"We drink a lot of beer," Yap said, "but we had nothing else to do in the Open End so we started playing darts."

Yap and Kwong were not expected to win, and they thought their own chances of victory were slim. "We were really surprised. We thought we would be gone in the first or second round," said an ecstatic Yap. "This feels really good."

The winner of the consolation championships was the team of Phil Novillo and Steve Livingston, who won one of the numerous prizes supplied by Molson's.

Yeowomen win U of T indoor tourney

By JENNIFER BOSTON

The Yeowomen Indoor Field Hockey team won an invitational tournament hosted by the University of Toronto over the weekend. The tournament featured competition from seven Ontario universities and three club teams. York was placed in The B pool and won all four of their games on the way to finishing first in their respective pool and securing a spot in the semi-finals.

On the second day of the competition York defeated the Ookpicks club to advance to the final. In the finals, York played the Nomads another club team who gave the Yeowomen their toughest game of the competition. The game was tied at halftime, and tied by the Nomads two more times before York eventually won it by a score of 8-6.
