GOLF

Ben Kern, 21 year-old golfing star from Port Credit, was chosen on the All-America golf team. Ben attends New Mexico State University on an athletic scholarship. Last year he placed second in the Ontario Open and fifth in the Ontario Amateur championship. He hopes to be selected for the Willingden Cup team for Ontario.

MOTORCYCLING

The Streetsville Ville Riders travelled to the forks of the Credit last Sunday for a hill-climbing competition. This Sunday, the club will go to Terra Cotta Conservation Area for a picnic. Road Tour leaves Krane's Cycle Shop, Streetsville, at 1:00 p.m.

BASEBALL

The Camilleri family has quite a reputation in the Lakeview-Lyndwood Basebal League.

Charlie Camilleri, the father, is coach of a Grasshopper division team called X-100s. They've won five games and tied one and are undefeated.

Charlie's twin sons are on the team. Ronny is the pitcher. He's tough to score on especially with the strong support he gets from his mates. Ricky is a hitter. He's been on base 23 times out of 26 at bats. He's the catcher for his brother.

Last week the X-100s walloped the Comets 32-5. In another game they trimmed the Lions 17-11. Other games saw Lions win over Green Giants, and Comets trim Green Giants.

In the Atom group Dodgers banged the Road Runners 18-1 and Fan-toms prevailed over the Rebels 8-5. Tyke action had Hornets defeating Apaches 21-16 and Jets downing Apaches 26-10 as Steve Barren had nine strikeouts. Jets and White Sox were rained out.

The girls' all-stars were defeated 10-7 by Eringate and then lost to Thistle-town by default.

CRICKET

Some magnificent fielding, batting and bowling allowed Mississauga Ramblers Cricket Club to win three games and tie one in a six-a-side tournament on Dominion Day.

Captain Pat Webb, Ken Bullock, Norm Brazier, Ali Khan, Lennox Gayle and Phiroz Nakhoda were the shining lights. Meeting Grace Church C. C. in the final, the Ramblers got them out for 45.

Ramblers then failed to make the winning run with their score at 45 and the match was tied. A magnificent trophy will be shared by the two teams for one year.

Captain Webb was on form with the ball taking six wickets during the afternoon. Lennox Gayle took the batting prize with 128 runs for only once out in four games.

In other matches, Welland defeated Mississauga 101 to 66, June 29 at Oakridges Park and in a return game at Welland, June 30, it was Welland 76 (Payne 4 for 33) and Ramblers 79 for eight (Payne 40, Barber 20). July 7 at Ajax, Ramblers had their best game of the season scoring 194 for nine declared (Rodrigues 44, Payne 32, Despard 20) against 56 for Ajax (Geoff Saldanha 6 for 21).

On July 13, Ramblers take on Brantford at Oakridge Park, and then travel to St. Catharines for a match on Sun. July 14.

PADDLING

Mississauga Canoe Club won their second straight regatta, this time at Burlington, by an overwhelming margin. They scored 174 points. Balmy Beach made 109. They captured the feature senior war canoe race by two boat lengths over Balmy Beach. In senior doubles competition, local crews finished one-two. Terry Leswick and Fred Heese combined to edge Dean Oldershaw and Jim Reardon by just over one boat length. Both crews have an excellent chance to win a spot on Canada's Olympic paddling team to be chosen next month.
