

just-finished "Kinn" and thought it great. I really should like to see some of your new books. I shall know what you are reading all winter. Ask the Nays and Miss Border
when they liked our friend Mr. Harry Greene.
His mother is a dear

3182
who are glad to be together again, now Charlie is at home. In the midst of great excitement (you can imagine it) they caught a porcupine on the place the other day. But the animal made good his escape after two days' captivity. I have