

opportunity will be made to your election by acclamation They should all be proud to have such an one for their representative in the Commons and Cabinet.
I hope you may long be spared to represent your country in the House and that with increase of years added usefulness with higher honours and greater strength will grow.

With every and all good wishes for your success and further advancement; Ever

Yours very sincerely
Howard J. Duncan

P. S. I expect to leave for England in a few days and if you wish to write me send to me at "Missenden House" Little Missenden. Bucks. Eng<sup>t</sup> as I shall go to friends there
